Interior Decorating

CHICAGO, IL -- Just as the clothes we wear make a definite statement about who we are, so do our living spaces. But, what can be done to make a dorm room or small apartment more attractive and functional without spending a fortune?

Dave Farrar, national home furnishings coordinator for Montgomery Ward, said one of the most important and least expensive ways to make a room come alive is with color. "Color can create excitement, while giving a room an entirely different personality," Farrar said. "If you are allowed to paint your room, this is one of the easiest ways to give a fresh look to a tired room."

The Ward's home furnishings coordinator suggested using a high-quality, semi- or high-gloss paint. A glossy paint is recommended because it reflects light better and gives great shadow effects.

"Since most dorm rooms and apartments are small, it's usually best to use a monochromatic color scheme," Farrar said, "since the use of various shades of the same color tend to make a room appear larger."

While light colors generally give the illusion of more space, Farrar recommended the use of dark colors when trying to create a dramatic environment. He cautioned against using contrasting colors as this cuts down on the size of a room.

Another way to add a unique touch to a room is through lighting. "Lights can do many things for a small room," Farrar said. "However, the first requirement of lighting is to provide adequate illumination."

Once the functional aspects of lighting are taken care of, it is time to look at lighting's aesthetic appeal. Two of the most popular ways to light a room today are with up lights and track lighting.

An uplight is an inexpensive light fixture that can be placed along the periphery of a wall and maneuvered to create various shadow effects. One of the most popular ways to use an uplight is to place it under a large, leafy plant allowing the leaves to form dramatic shadows on the walls and ceiling.

Track lighting is another way to highlight certain portions of a room. It's most popular function is to add extra emphasis to photographs, paintings, wall hangings or art pieces.

"Because of the enormous amount of time we spend in buildings which are uniformly lighted, we have forgotten how light and shadows can create so many moods for a room," the Ward's home furnishings coordinator said. "A few light fixtures, selectively placed, can add drama to any room."

Another inexpensive way to add pizzazz to a room or apartment is through the use of decorative and functional pillows. Decorative floor pillows can provide extra seating space while giving a room a stylish look. Throw pillows can easily be added to a double bed to make it into a comfortable sitting or lounge area.

"The key to using pillows on a bed is to include an ample number, as well as a variety of different shapes and sizes," Farrar said. "Don't skimp. Eight to twelve pillows is just about right for a double bed."

Even though life at a university is a temporary one, it obviously doesn't take much time or money to make a dramatic statement in a small space. Farrar said an added plus is that all the furnishings, excluding the paint, can easily be taken with when it's time to move.
