Juniors Interested in Law School

The Law School Admissions Services which administers the Law School Admission Test (LSAT's) Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS) advised prospective law school candidates for Fall, 1982, to consider taking the LSAT and registering for the LSDAS earlier than ever before. Candidates are urged to consider registering for the June 20, 1981 or October 3, 1981 test dates. Registration materials are now available in the Counseling Center, W-117.

1981-82 GRE's and GMAT's to be Administered on Campus

The Graduate Record Examinations (GRE's) will be administered at Penn State Capitol Campus on December 12, 1981, February 6 and April 24, 1982. Both the aptitude and Advanced tests will be given. Other test dates for the GRE's are October 17, 1981 and June 12, 1982.

The Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT's) will be administered on campus October 24, 1981; January 23, 1982 and March 20, 1982. The other test date for the GMAT is June 23, 1982.

Students interested in taking either the GRE or GMAT may give their names to Joanne Meinsler, the Counseling Center secretary, after May 1, 1981. When the Bulletins of Information are available, usually in August, students signed up will receive the Bulletins. After August, Bulletins may be secured either by stopping by the Center or calling 948-6025.

Law Symposium at Dickinson

Students interested in law school may want to attend the second annual symposium on "Women in Law," March 20-21, 1981 sponsored by Dickinson School of Law in Carlisle, Pa.

Carol Bellamy, New York City Council President, is the featured speaker. A lawyer by training, Ms. Bellamy is a graduate of Gettysburg College and New York University Law School.

Topics to be discussed at the symposium are Employment Discrimination, Property Rights of Women, Domestic Abuse, Women and Money.

For further information and details on registration, stop in the Counseling Center, W-117.

FINANCIAL AID UPDATE

FUND-AMENTAL NEWS

Final Deadlines Approaching

If you missed the Feb. 15 preferred filing date for many of the aid programs for Summer and Fall 1981, do not despair! Applications for Penn State summer aid, or for full-time summer jobs throughout Pennsylvania in non-profit agencies or on Penn State Campuses, will be accepted until March 15. Applications for Kunkle Scholarships, University Academic Scholarships, College Work/Study part-time jobs, NDSL 4% interest loans, and SEOG grants through Penn State will be accepted until April 1. All students, however, should immediately file the required State Grant/Basic Grant (PHEAA/BEOG) form for Pennsylvania residents, or the FAF (Financial Aid Form) for out-of-state residents, because of normal lengthy processing time. Don't miss out on these jobs, grants, scholarships, and loans because of failure to apply.

Memorial Scholarship

The Penn State/Capitol Campus Faculty Women's Club has recently voted to establish a Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $500 in memory of the late Dr. Robert A. Conover, former Program Chairman (Master of Engineering Science) and Associate Professor (Engineering). This scholarship will be awarded at June Commencement to a full-time undergraduate student planning enrollment at Capitol Campus at least one term after September 1981.

The Faculty Committee on Academic and Athletic Standards, Awards, and Scholarships will select the recipient, based on academic achievement, financial need, and contributions to college or community.

Interested students should complete an application as soon as possible, and not later than April 1, 1981. Applications are now available in the Multi Purpose Building, Room 214 (Admissions/Financial Aid Office). Students who have already applied for 1981-82 Kunkle Scholarship consideration will automatically be considered for the Dr. Conover Memorial Scholarship.

Last Chance

Did you know that there is still time to file for consideration for a Basic Grant for the 1980-81 (current) academic year? March 15, 1981, is the final deadline for this program for 1980-81. If you are found eligible, you can receive payments for Fall term 1980, the current Winter 1981 term, Spring term 1981, and possibly even Summer term 1981. This is a grant program (does not have to be repaid), based on family financial situation.

Also, has your family income been reduced since 1979? If so, you may wish to file the Basic Grant Supplemental Form for 1980-81, and/or the Basic Grant Special Condition Form for 1981-82, since your grant applications may be reconsidered based on changes in your family's financial circumstances. For the full information on these special forms and their requirements, contact Wayne Nelson, Financial Aid Counselor, at 948-6250, Room 214, Multi Purpose Building immediately.

CIVIL-REAL-IZATION

Red brick buttress church, Lugubrious in the cog fog wheeling wheeling night,
Screams bloody history-fraternity,
While a silver street light hums the nun's wool gray stage light.

The Campus's first "Lunch with an International Flair" was held Feb. 10 in the Gallery Lounge, with international students Raj Varma and Dilip Patel talking informally about life in India and their impressions of life in America. Sponsored by the Office of Student Affairs, the event was initiated in an effort to promote cultural communication and understanding between international students and the American students, faculty and staff. Plans are in effect to schedule these lunches on a regular basis, with speakers from the different countries represented on Campus.

BOOK STORE

ineffective in pleasing the students. There is speculation that part of the Book Store's problem is the Book Store manager. Although the Book Store is not in a strict sense a "student service," its failure to operate like most other student services may be due to what many students and faculty have described as the "unfriendly disposition" of its manager, Mr. Kistler. One source commented that "the least that is said to him the better," and one student observed that the manager is not very receptive to a student's request for help in finding a book in the store.

The Reader did make an attempt to photograph and interview Kistler, but he refused to be photographed and declined comment.

The shopping conditions at the Book Store will probably remain as they now are for some time unless students respond to requests for suggestions for the Book Store. Both Prof. Bubel and Ms. Prouser will gladly listen to any reasonable suggestions in regard to the Book Store.

Despite these conditions and lack of a tremendous profit, the Book Store still functions to serve most of the academic needs of the students. If students become more actively concerned with the Book Store's role on campus, perhaps the store will be able to serve other needs of the students, and be able to serve those needs in a more pleasant atmosphere.

COMMENTS ON BOOKSTORE NEEDED

The faculty committee on bookstore activities would like suggestions from students, faculty, and staff on improving the Capitol Campus bookstore. Although textbook prices will probably remain high because of rising costs for printing, paper, and postage, some desirable changes may be possible if enough members of the campus community express interest and submit their ideas for change. Write your suggestions in the space provided, clip, and drop in the C.C. Reader box in Room W-129.
