Summer Entertainment at HACC

June 12, 1981, HACC begins its seventh summer performing arts season. This year's extravaganza incorporates the talents of the professional troupe Danceteller, under the direction of Trina Collins; the Professional Summer Theatre Company, directed by Richard K. Olsen; and Third Stream, and Debbie Gaber, produced by Jim Miller.

The seven-member troupe, Danceteller, blends the arts of dance and acting into a witty, relaxing 90-minute concert of modern dance and theatrics.

The Professional Summer Theatre Company presents comical "Arms and the Man" and sympathetic "Prisoner of Second Avenue." The professionals of the company are joined by an ensemble of student apprentices for the productions.

A jazzfest ends the season on a high note with Third Stream, Third Stream and Friends, and Debbie Gaber mingling their talents for a festive finale.

All performances are at 8:00 p.m. in the Rose Lehrman Arts Center on the HACC campus. For ticket information call 234-7592 Monday through Friday 12:00 noon to 3:00 p.m.
