SOCIAL COMMITTEE

On behalf of the Social Committee, I would like to take this time to welcome the incoming juniors. The Social Committee asks that students get involved in campus activities. Student involvement gives the campus increased life and vitality.

Presently, the Social Committee consists of a chairman and three returning students. Involvement on the part of the students is definitely necessary. We would like to have at least two more members for the core group of the committee, hopefully juniors.

Anyone interested is welcome to help and participate in giving the campus new vitality. Those persons interested should contact Steve King (847A Kirtland Avenue) or Judi Polliard (138 Wrisberg Hall) or drop a note, with your name and how you can be contacted, in the Social Committee mail slot which is located in W-110.

Rock Talk

By Gene McGovern

It seemed for quite a long while that the world of rock was deteriorating. There seemed to be a lack of the excitement and enthusiasm that was present from the late sixties through the mid-seventies. That trend was definitely reversed when, on August 26, the Rolling Stones announced at a press conference that they would tour the United States. The tour, slated to extend through mid-December, will hit 21 cities and was kicked off in Philadelphia on September 25-26. The 180,000 tickets for the two shows were sold in approximately 28 hours. When asked why the Stones were starting in Philadelphia, Mick Jagger simply responded, "Philadelphia is a beautiful city."

I was one of the 180,000 lucky people to have had the privilege of seeing the Stones. There can be only one word used to describe their performance: Magnificent! They gave the rock world the kick in the ass it so badly needed. If you could have tapped the electricity in the air that day, you'd probably be able to run Detroit for a week. Bartenders in Philly said that they hadn't had so much excitement since the Phillies won the World Series.

The Stones played for well over two hours, doing an array of songs from their early days and about half of the songs from their newest release, "Tattoo You." Jagger wore an Eagle's jacket, given to him by John Sciarra, during the second half of the show. He sang incredibly well and the band's movements were poetic. Highlighting the show were the songs, "Time is on my Side," "You Can't Always Get What You Want," "Start It Up," "Honky Tonk Woman," "Brown Sugar," and "Jumpin Jack Flash." The Stones were simply incredible. Any rock fan who hasn't experienced them hasn't experienced rock and roll. The Rolling Stones are simply the greatest rock band in the world today.

Miscellaneous Notes

Studio 54 in New York has recently re-opened under new management. Somebody should do society a service and firebomb the Big Apple's number one disco.
