For Your Research Paper From Delta Tau Kappa

Submit your best effort in a Social Science research paper. If your work, as determined by a faculty panel, stands above the rest, you will receive a certificate of merit and $25.00 from Delta Tau Kappa.

A clean copy of your paper should be forwarded to the office of Dr. John Teske, W-153, by February 1, 1982.

Rock Talk

By Gene McGovern

The winner of the Music Contest is Rick Mathews. Come by the C.C. Reader Office and pick up your tape.

The winning answer to the question, "Name Foghat's tenth album" was "Tightshoes." Rick had a real battle with one other person. It had to go down to the final tie-breaker to decide the winner.

My column will be back in the next issue. Sorry, I'm presently on special assignment. Don't lose any sleep, hey!

Ask A Stupid Question...

By Bill Neil And Dave Caruso

Gentlemen:

Why was that bowl the Nittany Lions played in called the Fiesta Bowl? Was it because it was a fiesta to get the team away from University Park for a few days? Or was it because the fans had a fiesta to celebrate that the football season was finally over?

Bob Antonini
Happy Valley Correspondent

Dear Mr. Antonini,

It was called the Fiesta Bowl for one simple reason. The NBC camera crew managed to go the entire game without focusing below Joe Pa's waist, thus sparing PSU fans from looking at clam diggers and white socks, a sight which we have all had our fill of this year. This, even more than the PSU victory, gave the fans plenty of reason to call it the Fiesta Bowl.

Some inside info: The only reason Joe agreed to take his flashy, imaginative offense out west is because he thought the Lions were going to the Siesta Bowl.

Dearest Bave and Dill,

How cum youse guys don't have a column about Veterans in your paper? You know. New policy on veterans benefits, Agent Orange legislation, (Oops, excuse me, my right hand just fell off! I'm sorry Agent Orange hasn't been proven hazardous to your health.) etc. Shape up, C.C. Reader!

Disgruntled Grunt

Dear D.G.,

We would be more than happy to accommodate you, if only someone would write such a column. On second thought, if you are typical of the military intelligence around here, we'd rather run a column on great singing veterans of the opera such as Slim Whitman and Boxcar Willie.

The next time, buddy, try writing with your left hand.

Gentlemen:

This year the federal government will not require aliens within the borders of the United States to register an annual alien address report with the Immigration and Naturalization Service, but will require all male American citizens between the ages of 18 and 21 to register with the Selective Service. Wouldn't you say that this is a case of reverse alienation?

Alfred Bryon & Al Piantadosi

We have landed.

Dear Alfie and Albie,

Although you may have a point, we feel that a true case of reverse alienation is noitaneila.

Dear Sirs,

I understand it is easy to answer a stupid question, because only stupid people can answer it, and only stupid people will understand it.

U. Stupid

Dear Stupid,

While we're on the subject of stupidity, ma'am, we have come to the conclusion that if we shoved your brain down a gnat's throat, it would rattle around like a beebee in a boxcar.

If this answer meets your qualifications, then even you should understand it.

Dear Bill and Dave,

Is it possible for a cunning linguist to breathe under water?

Wile E. Coyote

Dear Quadrupedal,

Affirmative, Wile E. He or she just has to be careful of his or her morphemes and phonemes. The wrong combination of morphemes, phonemes, and H2O, you must remember, can cause diarrhea of the mouth.

Dear Editors,

What do you think of a column in the READER entitled "Name Your Perversion"? We could sit back and see what type of weirdos inhabit the C.C. campus or to what astronomical limits the individual's imagination will reach.

The Right Rev. Skippy Wraparound

Dear Impostor,

There already exists such a column; it's called the personals.

We would like to thank all of our "stupid" contributors. Keep those queries coming, and remember: When all else fails, read the directions.
