

Students ring in new year at bash

By Michele S. Haley

Students continued to celebrate the new year at the "After the bash Bash," held at the Student Center on Friday, January 14th from 9:00 pm til 1:00 pm.

The music of "Original Gold" was featured at this new year's celebration, sponsored by the S.U.B.O.G. and co-sponsored by PI SIGMA CHI, a fraternity on campus.

"Tulsa Time" at 9:30 and went on to perform a variety of "Oldies" and Top Forty Hits until they ended with a slow ballad at 1:15 am. Throughout the night students "Rock N' Rolled" to such favorites as Kool and the Gang's "Celebration," Bachman Turner Overdrive's "Takin' Care of Business," performed by the band out of the East and West Shore, and a few Led Zeppelin songs performed by "Le Zoo," a local band on campus.

Beneath a background of streamers, and balloons, hors d'oeuvres were served by a team of five waitresses and a maitre d', as a group of approximately 150 local students rung in the new year.

Proceeds received from the bash will go towards the "Rights of Spring," a celebration of springtime sponsored by the S.U.B.O.G.

Pack cover photos by Michael Markle

Cover photo by Joe Hart

Capitol

Times

Vol. 17, No. 4 Monday,
January 24, 1983

Meet the Dean of Commanders page 10

Scissors and coupons,

ways to clip and save page...7

Bookstore, friend or foe?

students, faculty comment page...8 and 9

Capitol reflects national championship page...11