

Would you rather have your classes and club meetings in the same building, or spread out among other campus buildings?

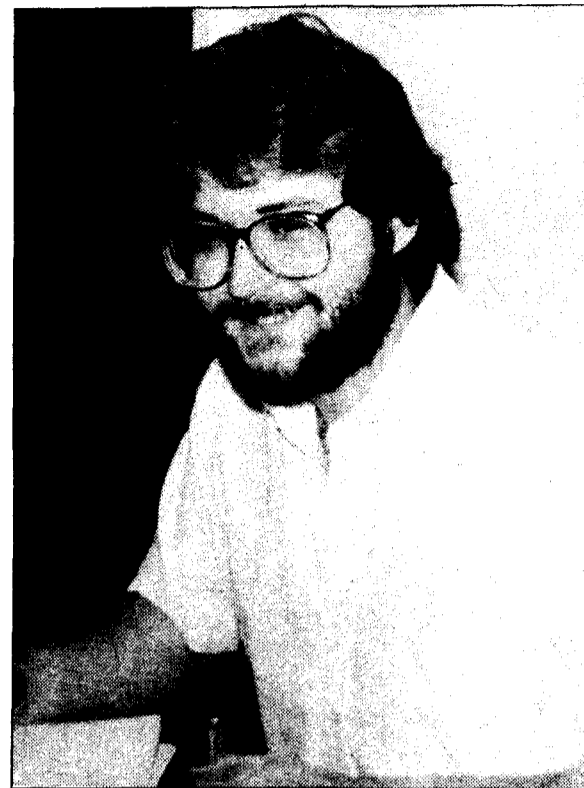

"It's more convenient here, but if that is a group's only alternative I would go along with it."

Susan Kubli
Building Construction and Technology

"Some of my clubs already meet outside of Olmsted, but it is convenient not to travel outside the main building."

John M. Brightwell
Marketing/Management/General Business

"For a student on campus it might be alright, but for a commuter it would be a major inconvenience."

Robert Weldon
Public Policy

"I don't think it's a hot idea. It's alot more convenient to have classes and meetings all in one building."

Leah Hitchens
Behavioral Science

"It's hard enough to get student involvement while the clubs meet here in this building."

Wendy Batkin Accounting

"We are better off here, it's hard enough to get people to attend meetings here, let alone in another building."

Bernie Kozlowski
DPMA

Photos by Jeff Shatzer