

Capitol celebrates birthday

Capitol Campus' 17th birthday party is from 8:00 p.m. until midnight in the Student Center tomorrow night. The party, sponsored by the Student Union Board of Governors and Pi Sigma Chi, will feature the music of a '50's band. No admission is required.

Grad entrance test workshop offered

The Counseling Center is offering a workshop today on Graduate School Entrance Tests.

The purpose of the workshop is to prepare and familiarize students with the nature of standardized tests.

Students may attend a session from 3:00 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. or from 8:00 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. in the Gallery Lounge. For further information contact Marion Krieger in W-117, or phone 948-6025.

Job search meeting today

Students will be given an opportunity to obtain more information on job search strategies at a meeting sponsored by the Placement Office today at 3:30 in W-132.

The Placement Office will also hold five more meetings through December on the following dates:

Monday, November 21 - 6:00 p.m. - Effective Resume Writing;
Tuesday, November 22 - 12:30 p.m. - Interview Preparation; Tuesday, November 29 - 12:30 p.m. - On-Campus Interview Information;
Wednesday, November 30 - 6:00 p.m. - Job Search Strategies;
Thursday, December 1 - 3:00 p.m. - On-Campus Interview Information.

Library maintains acquisition lists

The library produces a monthly listing of recent acquisitions.

Please contact Eileen Jackson at 948-6075, if you wish to receive future lists of recent acquisitions.

Savings are available on computers

Four major computer manufacturers are now offering up to a 50 percent discount on retail prices of personal computers and equipment to any student, faculty or staff member of Capitol Campus.

Those interested should make their requests to Mr. Robert Hamill in the Business Office, Room 114, at 948-6004.

Cieniewicz exhibit scheduled

An exhibit of the works of Marie Cieniewicz of Reading, Pa., will continue through December 2 in the Gallery Lounge.

The exhibit, coordinated by the Student Activities Office, features paintings and prints in various mediums, based on themes in nature.

Law school news service available

The Law School Admission Council is offering a news service for students who are interested in or preparing to enter law school. The service is a four-part program of publications, services and self-evaluation materials that will help students explore questions about the admission process of law school, the aims of legal education and the range of careers available with a law degree.

Students who desire more information can request "The Law Package Brochure" by writing to: Law School Admission Services, Box 500, Newtown, PA 18940.

Graduate school catalogs available

The Counseling Center maintains a complete set of graduate school catalogs to aid students and faculty in graduate school planning and preparing applications.

This year the center has received a number of duplicate copies for some of the catalogs. Any faculty member or student who wants a personal copy of a particular catalog can stop by the Counseling Center in W-117.

Gekas seeks congressional interns

George W. Gekas, a member of the Judiciary Committee of the 17th Congressional District, is seeking interns to work in his Washington, D.C. office during the summer or spring of 1984.

Interns will be given an in-depth look at the operation of the legislative branch of the federal government, as well as the opportunity to engage in congressional projects.

The non-paying internships are open to any undergraduate student. Interns must be available at least eight hours per week and serve for a minimum of two months. For more information write: 1008 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515 or phone (202) 225-4315.

Alumni sponsor Big Apple trip

The Capitol Campus Alumni Society will sponsor a bus trip to New York City on Saturday, December 10.

The trip will cost $20 per person. The bus will leave from the front of the Olmsted Building at 6:30 a.m., and will arrive in New York City at 10:30 a.m.

The bus will pick everyone up in front of Radio City Music Hall at 8:30 p.m., and arrive at Capitol Campus at 12:30 a.m.

For more information and application forms, contact Sherry Janis in the Public Relations Office in W-205 or call 948-6000.

Calendar sale benefits Chi Rho

The Chi Rho club will be selling two-year planning calendars for $2 each through December 12.

The calendars will be available in the main lobby in a choice of styles.

Editor's note: Events are published free on the "Briefly" page. Organizations can pick up information forms in the Student Activities, or Capitol Times offices, and return them to Michele Haley, Events Editor, c/o Capitol Times.

EARN EXTRA $$$

selling ads for the Capitol Times
See Sean Ferry in W-129 or call
944-4970

Commissions offered!

The experience will look great on your RESUME