Clubs collect food for the needy

Two campus organizations have teamed up this Thanksgiving to collect food for the needy.

Chi Rho, a Catholic organization, and Pi Sigma Chi, a social fraternity, are collecting canned goods and other non-perishable food items through tomorrow in the S.G.A. office, Room W-110 in the Olmsted Building.

Sister Antonia, who works closely with Chi Rho, said that students from Meade Heights have sometimes donated the items left in their cupboards when they leave campus for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Last year, five families were helped with donations from Capitol Campus, Sister said.
