

Fall kick-off to begin tonight

By Don Strausburger

The Capitol Campus social events calendar opens this weekend with the Fall Kickoff today and tomorrow.

The weekend offers a "good way for new students to meet returning students," said Jeff Schnier, president of the Student Union Board of Governors (S.U.B.O.G.).

The events begin tonight at 9 in the Student Center with the Kickoff Dance, featuring the Top 40 dance music of The Inciters. Admission for the dance is $1 and the event is BYOB (cans only).

The action shifts to People's Park in Meade Heights tomorrow. The events in People's Park include music by Jinx, a Top 40 band, and the country sounds of Woods N' Miller. Students can also participate in the Volleyball Tournament, water slide, egg toss, water balloon contest and the dunking booth. After these events, a thousand hot dogs will be ready to be eaten, all of these events are free.

The weekend festivities close with Cheech and Chong's Next Movie at 8 p.m. in the Student Center. Admission is $1 and popcorn and soda will be sold, or you can bring your own favorite form of refreshment.

The weekend events are sponsored by S.U.B.O.G., the Residence Assistants, the Resident Student Council, the Meade Heights Community Council (M.H.C.C.), the XGI's (Chi Gamma Iota, a veteran's fraternity), the Cheerleaders, Pi Sigma Chi (a social service fraternity), the Data Processing Management Association (D.P.M.A.), and the Association of Student Accountants (A.S.A.).

The new Science and Technology Building (above), is already in use.

Diverse faculty join staff
