

The News in Brief

Conversant program pairs

Capitol Students can learn about other cultures by becoming part of the conversant program here. Participants go on trips, shop or just talk with foreign students. Information is available from David Doaty in the Student Support Center, W-105 Olmsted Building.

WNDR Daily Features

Each weekday, WNDR and the Westwood One Radio Network offer daily radio features containing interesting tidbits of information and interviews with celebrities in the music industry and in related fields. Daybook, which is broadcast at 8:25 a.m. and again at 2:45 p.m., features historical facts about each day. Earth News, which runs at 9:45 a.m. and 3:45 p.m., is a contemporary news and information service. In addition, Off The Record features Mary Turner's conversations with the stars of popular music at 12:45 p.m. and 5:45 p.m.

Mental health interships

Several twelve-month Mental Health Resident Advisor/Counselor Traineeships are available at Career House in Suburban Philadelphia. Graduating seniors, new graduates, and graduate students are invited to apply.

A stipend of $500 per month, housing, and meals are offered to qualified applicants who are U.S. citizens, unmarried and at least 21 years of age. Hospitalization and medical coverage is also provided.

Trainees "live-in" and receive training and supervised experience in supportive counseling and milieu therapy, crisis intervention and other areas.

For more information, write: Dr. Henry Platt, Director, Institute of Clinical Training and Research, 19 S. Waterloo Road, Box 400, Devon, PA 19333 (215/296-6906).

NRC offers assistance

The National Research Council announces the 1985 Postdoctoral, Resident, and Cooperative Research Associateship Programs for research in the sciences and engineering. Approximately 250 new full-time associateships will be awarded on a competitive basis in 1985 for research in chemistry, engineering and mathematics, and in the earth, environmental, physical, space and life sciences.

Applications to the National Research Council must be mailed no later than January 15, 1985.

To apply or inquire further, please contact: Associateship Programs, Office of Scientific and Engineering Personnel, JH 608-D3, National Research Council, 2101 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20418 (202/334-2760).

NEH Younger Scholars

Guidelines and application forms for the Younger Scholars program of the National Endowment for the Humanities are available in the Placement Office. The grants cover undergraduate research in philosophy, history and literature. Deadline is October 15.

CPA's sponsor competition

The Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA) is sponsoring its tenth annual Student Manuscript Competition.

The competition is open to all junior, senior and graduate students majoring in accounting at Pennsylvania colleges and universities. Cash awards of $1,000, $600 and $400 will be given for the three best articles.

For information, contact the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Mary Sachs Building, Suite 200, 208 North Third Street, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17101, (717) 232-1821.

Popular mime in area

Dan Kamin, nationally acclaimed mime artist, will perform at the Independent Eye located at 208 East King Street in Lancaster. Kamin will appear Thursday through Saturday (Oct. 11-13) at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Oct. 14 at 7:30.

For more information and reservations, call 393-9088.

Career Fair here today

Representatives of business, government, industry and service organizations will be in room 216 of the Olmsted Building today from 9:30 to 3 p.m. to discuss career opportunities in their fields.

At least 45 companies are scheduled to send representatives, many of them Capitol Campus alumni, according to the Career Services Office, sponsor of the event.

PICPA writing contest

The Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA) is sponsoring its tenth annual Student Manuscript Competition. Open to all junior, senior and graduate students majoring in accounting at Pennsylvania colleges and universities. The contest offers cash awards of $1,000, $600 and $400 for the three best articles.

The first place article will be published in the summer 1985 issue of Pennsylvania CPA Journal. The topic of the contest is "The CPA as Expert Witness". Manuscripts must be 1500-2000 words and must be submitted by December 31, 1984.

To apply or for more information, please contact the PICPA (Mary Sachs Building, Suite 200, 208 North Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101, 717/232-1821).

Crosswalk tickets issued

Campus police are now issuing commonwealth citations totaling $42.50 to drivers who fail to stop for pedestrians in crosswalks, according to Charles Aleksy, Supervisor of safety and police services.

Pedestrians will also be fined if they fail to allow a reasonable time for vehicles to stop, Aleksy noted.

Women's series continues

"Time Management for the Working Woman" is the next in a series of workshops for women being offered by Continuing Education through November 14. Other topics will include assertiveness and financial security.

For information, call 948-6275.

Campaign exhibit set

"From Buttons to Bumper Stickers: The Candidates' Message" is the title of a new exhibit on display through November 11 at the Hershey Museum of American Life. For more information call Jean Cutler at (717)534-3429.

WNDR offers specials

WNDR and the Westwood One Radio Network are offering a series of weekly specials featuring the latest in comedy, concerts and interviews with the hottest music stars of today. The schedule of programming is as follows:

- Dr. Demento - Sunday at 8 p.m.
- Concerts & Specials - Sunday at 10 p.m.
- The Rock Chronicles - Wednesday at 8 p.m.
- Off The Record Specials - Thursday at 8 p.m.

Student Bill Policies

The Finance Office has announced that the extension of late payment fees this semester will not be repeated in the spring. All students must file a spring estimated bill by December 14. Bills will be mailed Nov. 23.

Students who drop courses and are entitled to a refund, as well as other students with questions, should contact the Finance Office at 948-6009.

Bookstore

(continued from pg. 1)

ed to the weather it will turn black and then take on a greenish tinge as it oxidizes.

When completed, the new bookstore will be an independently run, university-owned facility, operating with 6200 square feet of floor space. The cost of utilities used by the bookstore in its operation will be paid back to the university.

The bookstore will also operate on a profit-making basis.

At present, Capitol Campus Provost Ruth Leventhal is considering plans to turn the old bookstore into an administrative suite. According to Joe Kemp, when construction of the bookstore is completed, Capitol Campus students will have "a (heck) of a good bookstore."

MBA offered

(continued from pg. 1)

seeking or holding management positions. Courses in the program are taught by resident doctorally qualified faculty and include guest lecturers from the business community, Dexter said.

"The change in the title is as important to the student as it is to the employer," Dexter continued, "and the response to the new degree title has been good." There are currently 200 students enrolled this semester.

Students take a minimum of 39 semester hours of graduate work. They do not do a masters thesis but instead do what is called a masters project, a "professional paper", Dexter said. The nature of the MBA is to be a broad degree.

During the coming academic year, the business division will conduct a detailed self-study of the MBA program in preparation for accreditation by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). This will be followed by outside evaluation and visitation by the AACSB.

FREE GAS

Share a ride with three friends to Sera-Tec and we will pay for the gas.

CALL 232-1901

For an appointment and additional information

SERA-TEC BIOLOGICALS

260 Relly St., Harrisburg

We are open:

Monday-Friday 8 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.

