Briefs

Next issue slated for Jan. 31

The next issue of the Capitol Times is scheduled for Jan. 31. Any inquiries about advertisements, classified ads or event notices should be made with this in mind.

The staff of the Times wishes all of its readers a happy, safe holiday season and looks forward to the many exciting things the new year has in store.

Book lists graduate programs

Copies of the 1985 Graduate School Guide are available for student use in the Capitol Campus counseling center. The directory contains information about master's and doctoral degree programs at over 500 colleges and universities in the East and Midwest. Every graduate degree program is listed along with majors, tuition, names of deans and satellite campus addresses.

The directory also includes a cross reference section of graduate programs so that students can identify those colleges and universities which offer degrees in each of over fifty fields of study.

HCT auditions for 'Agnes'

The Harrisburg Community Theatre will hold open auditions for the successful Broadway drama Agnes of God at 7 p.m. Sunday and Monday, Dec. 16 and 17 at the theater's facility at Sixth and Hurlock Streets.

Three dynamic female roles are available: Agnes (21, a waif-like, innocent young nun with a history of abuse and deprivation as a child); Dr. Martha Livingstone (about 40, a chain-smoking, agnostic psychiatrist with her own troubled past); and Mother Miriam Ruth (50-60, the wise and devious Mother Superior). All three roles require actresses of considerable skill and experience.

For further information call 238-7382.

Poetry workshops slated

William S. Pollard is planning to conduct a series of workshops concerning style and the technical side of writing poetry. Anyone interested should contact the Art Association of Harrisburg at 236-1432.
