I do not desire to cause trouble, but I must take a stand! If you must print abortion advertisements I feel you should also print ads for other alternatives. If you need names to contact, I will be more than willing to supply them to you.

Congratulations on the resumption of the Times. Just a trivial correction, however, in that v. 20, #1 came out in Aug. of 1985. You probably meant this Aug. 27, 1986 issue to be v. 21, #1.

Balfour/Penn State: Tradition Continues

A long standing tradition lives on at Penn State, formalized by the official choice of Balfour as the exclusive supplier of Class Rings for the Penn State Bookstore, at Harrisburg.

According to Cindy Salatino, Bookstore Manager, that determination was made based on a number of factors: Balfour's outstanding quality and detail of workmanship, the company's exemplary service and dependability, and a highly competitive price structure.

The choice of Balfour as class ring supplier is the culmination of a longstanding relationship between Penn State and Balfour. Throughout more than twenty years Balfour has supplied Penn State with prestigious championship rings that include the '67 Gator Bowl, '68 and '69 Orange Bowl, '71 Cotton Bowl, '73 Orange Bowl, '79 Fiesta Bowl, and the '82 National Championship rings.

In addition, Balfour manufactures Penn State's Letterman rings for all sports, both men's and women's, and rings for the Penn State Football Letterman's Club.

Balfour has been serving the college market since its inception on 1913, and built a national reputation as a leading supplier of fine high school, college, and fraternity jewelry and recognition products. In addition, Balfour is known for its business and sports recognition lines, that include national championship rings such as AFC Championship Ring, and the World Series Ring.

A representative from Balfour will be on campus, in the Lion's Den, on Wednesday, October 8, 1986 from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. A $10.00 deposit is necessary to place the order. To insure prompt Christmas delivery, please remember to place your order on October 8. This is a public service announcement.

Dear Editor,

I am a prisoner on death row at the Arizona State Prison and I was wondering if you would do me a favor. I have been here for quite a while and have no family or friends on the outside to write to. I was wondering if you would put an ad in your campus newspaper for me for correspondence. If not in your paper, then maybe you have some kind of bulletin that you could put it in. I know that you are not a pen-pal club or anything like that, but I would really appreciate it if you could help me.

Since I don't know if you have an actual newspaper, I will just make a small ad and then if you have to change it around or anything, go ahead and do what you need to.

Death Row prisoner, caucasian male, age 40, desires correspondence with either male or female college students. Jim Jeffers, Box B-38604, Florence, Arizona 85232.

Sincerely yours,
Jim Jeffers

The deadline for ordering caps and gowns in time for the January, 1987 commencement is Friday, October 24. Orders may be placed in the bookstore.

QUESTION #1.

WHAT IS THE RIGHT CHOICE FOR MOST COLLEGE STUDENTS?

- a) AT&T—for everyday discounts of 40% to over 50% off weekday rates on out-of-state calls.
- b) Short bursts of intense study followed by hours of frantic partying.
- c) AT&T—for exceptional value and high quality service.
- d) AT&T—for collect, third-party and operator-assisted long distance calls.
- e) Any class that does not conflict with "The Love Connection!"

If you picked A, C and D, you're destined for great things. Like AT&T Long Distance Service. AT&T offers so many terrific values. Like a 40% to over 50% discount off our day rate on night, evening, and weekend out-of-state calls.

Imagine what you'll do with the money you could save. Imagine what your parents would do if they found out.

Of course, you can count on AT&T for clear long distance connections any place you call. And AT&T gives you immediate credit for wrong numbers.

To find out more about why you should choose AT&T, give us a call. And if you picked B and E, call anyway. You could probably use someone to talk to.
