

Faculty Committees

Any student has the opportunity to sit on most of the faculty committees on campus. Anyone interested in turner information or in serving on a committee may contact Donald Alexander, faculty council president, in room W-357 or at 948-6208.

Faculty committees

Committee

Academic Affairs

Membership

One faculty member from each undergraduate program, two faculty members from all graduate programs, two undergraduate and one graduate student.

Function

Reviews and evaluates course and curricula proposals submitted by the various programs; examines existing courses and curricula of the campus with reference to the needs of students and necessary changes. Develops criteria for evaluating courses and curricula proposals; acts as liaison to the campus administration and faculty as necessary for implementation of procedures.

Academic Admissions Standards

One faculty member from each undergraduate program, academic services officer (exofficio), and two undergraduate students

Initiates legislation relating to academic admissions standards and recommends changes concerning overall and special individual problems of admission and readmission to the faculty organization.

Academic and Athletic Standards, Awards, and Scholarships

One faculty member from each undergraduate program and two undergraduate students

Acts on individual problems on reinstatement and certification of credit; acts as the final review board for petitions for exceptions on graduation requirements; deals with policies related to the athletic programs of the campus, including student eligibility and schedules for athletic contests; and recommends policies relating to student awards and scholarships.

Bookstore Activities

Three faculty members and one student

Facilitates communications between faculty and students and the bookstore management. Initiates proposals for changes and improvements of bookstore services.

Community Contacts

Three faculty members and one student

Facilitates cordial relationships between faculty and the community

Computer Facilities

Two faculty members, computer center coordinator, and one student

Advises the faculty and administration about computers on this campus; facilitates the use of computers by faculty, staff, and students; informs faculty of new hardware/software useful for research activities in the various academic disciplines.

Library

One faculty member from each program group, the librarian and assistant librarian as exofficio members, and two students

Works with the college librarian, the administration, the faculty, and the student body to oversee policies affecting the nature of the library collection and to consider the conditions governing the use of the collection

Student Affairs

Six members of the full-time teaching faculty, the Assistant Provost for Student Affairs (exofficio), the president of Student Government Association, and two additional full-time undergraduate students selected by the Student Government Association

Represents the student opinion on academic matters to the faculty organization; Liaison with elected officers of the student body; maintains awareness of current trends and long-range studies in student affairs.

Campus Beautification (ad hoc)

The committee's main objective is to create a more attractive and inviting campus appearance.

Student Government Committees

Finance Committee

This committee is composed of five students, of which four are seniors and one is a junior

Recommends the allocation of funds for established clubs and activities on campus. These recommendations are presented to the Student Government Senate for approval. The Treasurer of the Student Government serves as chairperson of this committee.

Election Screening Committee

Six students compose this committee, four of them seniors and two juniors.

Responsible for reviewing all candidates for offices in the Student Government Association; the Student Court and the Appeals and Hearing Board. Sets guidelines for the Student Government elections, tabulates the results and issues notices of these results to the student body.

Ad Hoc

Appointed by the Student Government

Established for special events or temporary function.

Classified

This section is a media bulletin board for personal messages. It can be used to sell books, advertise services, or notify a friend. If you are interested in posting your note, stop by room W-129 Mon., Wed., Fri., 12-2 or Tues./Thurs. 11-2 to fill in a form. A nominal fee of 10 words for a dollar will be charged to offset our operations costs. We reserve the right to edit, reject or cancel any copy deemed objectionable.

Need artwork, illustrations, calligraphy, signs or technical illustrations for reports, research papers, organizations or special occasions? Call The Illustrator at 948-1843. Reasonable rates on long or short deadlines. No job too big or too small!

Buy a book of memories. Capalite '86 is available in Student Activities, Room 212, $20.00

Seeking someone to share expense, fun of D.C. Museum Trip, 766-7401

Desire fame and fortune? Well write for the Capital Times anyway. Stop in office at W-129, daily 12-2.

For Sale: 24" 10-speed, red and black, $40.00, 766-7401

Would like to trade Bundy Clarinet for used flute, 766-7401

At least 20 percent of all female students experience some form of sexual harrassment while in college, and about 2 percent—125,000 women—face direct threats or bribes.

Source: American Association of Colleges.

In 1960, total school expenditures in the United States, from federal, state, local and other sources, was $24.7 billion. In 1985, it was $240 billion.

Source: U.S. Statistical Abstracts, 1986.

Educational Notes

Honeywell Corporation's Futurist Awards Competition is under way. Imagine the future and write an essay about technological developments as you foresee them. Ten winners will receive $3,000 each and a chance to work for Honeywell next summer. Call 1-800-328-5111, ext. 1581 for information and entry material.

engineering field. Deadline November 14, 1986. Contact Fellowship Office, National Research Council, 2101 Constitution Avenue, Washington D.C. 20418 or call (202) 334-2872.

Pennsylvania Institute for Certified Public Accountants is sponsoring the 12th Annual Student Manuscript Competition. The purpose is to encourage college students to address issues affecting the future of the accounting profession. Call PICPA in Harrisburg, 717-232-1821.

PSU, Harrisburg is offering following computer related courses as a one year certificate program through continuing education: CAD and other microcomputer applications in mechanical engineering, programmable controllers, microcomputers and robotics. Information by calling 948-6275.

National Science Foundation has announced three-year minority graduate fellowship stipends of $11,100 for 1987-88 for purpose of increasing number of practicing scientists within minority ethnic groups. Deadline for application November 14, 1986. Contact Fellowship Office, National Research Council, 2101 Constitution Avenue, Washington D.C. 20418 or call (202) 334-2872.

PSU, Harrisburg will hold a two day conference November 12 and 13 on campus. "Structural Analysis Using Microcomputers" is intended to teach practicing structural, civil and mechanical engineers how to prepare data to execute model computer programs. Call Continuing Education at 948-6275 for information.

National Science Foundation has announced three-year graduate fellowships of $11,100 for 1987-88 for the science and PSU, Harrisburg will present a one-day workshop on Alcohol and Drug Abuse in the workplace. It is intended for supervisory personnel who have responsibility for monitoring employee performance. Call Continuing Education at 948-6275.