

S.U.B.O.G. : "Party Club" Wants Campus Community Input

By Kimberly Anastas

"The Party Club." Interested? You should be because the Student Union Board of Governors (S.U.B.O.G.) is interested in your social life.

According to Dale Zartman, president of S.U.B.O.G., "The 'party club' promotes activities to get students involved." S.U.B.O.G. is responsible for organizing dances and concerts, as well as bringing hypnotists, musicians, and artists to Capital College.

At present, according to Zart-man, "about ten active members and the officers" decide what activities will be brought to the campus. The club needs new members, said Zartman. "We need feedback for what the campus wants."

Any student can join S.U.B.O.G. New members are always welcome, said Zartman. He also said that ideas for activities and suggestions for concert groups are encouraged.

Presently, S.U.B.O.G. members are working to organize "Autumn Buzz," which will take place from Thursday, October 22, through Sunday, October 25. The purpose of Autumn Buzz weekend, according to Zartman, is to "give the alumni a reason to come back to visit and the students a reason to stay on campus for the weekend."

"A lot of clubs want to become involved. We want to make it a weekend students will look forward to--like a homecoming weekend," said Zartman.

Some of the events of Autumn Buzz include: a bonfire, a hayride, a dance, a hypnotist, a soccer game, a road rally, a picnic, and a concert featuring Tommy Conwell and the Young Rumblers. A faculty vs. student or alumni vs. student softball game is also a possibility.

S.U.B.O.G. meets every Tuesday at 1:00 in W212, Olmsted. Interested students are urged to attend the next meeting.

Officers of the Student Union Board of Governors for this year are: Dale Zartman, president; Tom England, vice president; Karen Barlick, treasurer; Lisa McGee, secretary; and Maria McLaughlin, assistant secretary. (McGee graduates in December, and McLaughlin will take over as secretary.)

TARNHELM '88 CONTEST BEGINS

By Kathleen Riley-King

Tarnhelm co-editors Randy Bates and Jackie Guida are looking for entrants in the Tarnhelm '88 contest.

Cash awards will be presented to winners in each of three categories: poetry, prose, photography/graphic arts/drawing.

Tarnhelm, the campus arts and literary magazine, accepts poetry, short stories, brief creative essays, black and white photographs, and black and white photography.

The magazine provides an opportunity for undergraduates and graduate students of all majors to express themselves in the print medium of their choice. In addition, having your work published can add a significant note to your resume.

Please share your creative entry for consideration by following these instructions for submission:

Enclose submissions in a self-addressed envelope.

Include proper postage for notification of acceptance and/or return of material.

Do NOT put your name on individual works. All work is to be judged anonymously.

Enclose a separate sheet stating your name, address, phone number, major and option, and current term status.

SUBMISSIONS ARE TO BE DROPPED OFF IN THE TARNHELM MAIL SLOT IN ROOM 216.

GUIDELINES: Typed on 8 1/2" X 11" unlined paper.

POETRY: One poem per page.

FICTION AND NONFICTION: Short stories, creative essays, double-spaced.

GRAPHICS AND PHOTOGRAPHY: BLACK & WHITE ONLY!

DEADLINE: February 14, 1988

Staff members are also needed, and students who are interested in joining the staff should sign up in W360, the Humanities Division.

Duties of the staff include attending several initial meetings, reading and judging entries, and attending a final meeting to select submissions to publish.
