Printmaking Exhibits At Penn State Harrisburg

Thirty-five prints by seven well-known local artists are currently on exhibit in Penn State Harrisburg's Humanities Division Gallery. The show includes etchings, monotypes and calligraphs created at the Mechanicsburg Art Center's graphics studios.

The artists, most of whom are known for their painting and drawing, have spent the last several years working together in various printmaking classes and workshops at the center. They are now beginning to show their work in local and national print shows.

The artists include Barbara Buer, Jeffrey Bodenstein, Caroline Erney, Pat Keough, Quentin Walter, Gloria Watts and Joan Wolf.

This print exhibit has been scheduled to coincide with another print show on campus--Award Winning Works From The Print Club Of Philadelphia. This exhibit, which is in the Heindel Library Gallery, is a group show featuring internationally recognized printmakers. Both exhibits run through the month of February.

The Humanities Division Gallery is located on the third floor of the Olmsted building and is open Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. The Heindel Library Gallery is on the first floor of the Olmsted building and is open during regular library hours.
