Wheeling Across the Country

By Mary Herzel

"Why me?" "Do I have to be paralyzed from the waist down?"

So began the story of Mike King, confined to a wheelchair that has carried him from Alaska to Harrisburg.

To a packed Gallery Lounge on Feb. 4, King shared his experiences since his motorcycle accident. King shared his subsequent depression, and his new strengths.

"At first I wasn't able to see what I could still do and so I concentrated on the things I couldn't do," he said.

King emphasized the three P's—prayer, patience, and perseverance—as ways to overcome any obstacles in life.

King tells that life is worth living in his book "The Mike King Story".

A slide show that impressed the audience followed King's talk.

Capital Christian Fellowship sponsored the program.

Awards Ceremony Planned

Attention all club members and officers the Awards Banquet will be held on April 22. Please be sure to return your invitation lists if you have not already done so. If you are interested in going contact your club's president.

So You Think You'd Prefer the Good Old Days (or We've Come a Long Way Baby!) Thanks to Dr. McGhee for submission of this nostalgia.

Consider the following office rules posted in this country in 1872 by Zachary U. Geiger, sole proprietor of the Mount Cory Carriage and Wagon Works.

1. Office employees will daily sweep the floors; dust the furniture, shelves and showcases.
2. Each clerk will bring in a bucket of water and a scuttle of coal for the day's business.
3. Clerks will each day fill lamps, clean chimneys, trim wicks. Wash the windows once week.
4. This office will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. daily, except on the sabbath, on which day it will remain closed.
5. Men employees will be given an evening off each week for courting purposes, or two evenings a week if they go regularly to church.
6. Every employee should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of his earnings for his benefits during his declining years, so that he will not become a burden upon the charity of his betters.
7. Any employee who smokes Spanish cigars, uses liquor in any form, gets shaved at a barbershop, or frequents pool or public halls, will give me good reason to suspect his worth, intentions, integrity, and honesty.
8. The employee who has performed his labors faithfully and without fault for a period of five years in my service, and who has been thrifty and attentive to his religious duties, is looked upon by his fellow men as a substantial and law abiding citizen, will be given an increase of five cents per day in his pay, providing a just return in profits from the business permits it.
