Middletown Happenings

There are things to do around here!

Middletown, which was established in 1755, has many historical attractions to offer its residents, as well as visitors.

A scenic train ride on the Middletown & Hummelstown Railroad, a visit to Indian Echo Caverns and dinner at Alfred's Victorian would make for a pleasurable Saturday.

For the more casual person, perhaps an afternoon of Champion Miniature Golf, driving golf balls at Tom's Tee in Hummelstown and a pizza from one of Middletown's many pizza shops would sound better.

Many students come to this campus and think that Jamesway is the biggest attraction in Middletown.

Of course, it's not a booming metropolis like the Big Apple, but for a small, historic town, it is quite nice.

If a two dollar movie sounds appealing, then the Elks theater is where you'll want to be this weekend.

Located at Union and Emaus Streets, the historical theater offers recent movies at the lowest prices.

"Weekend at Bernie's" is showing Thursday, and "Peter Pan" begins a week-long run Friday. Adult tickets are $2 and children are $1.

For further information, call (717) 944-1981.

The downtown shopping district, mainly on Union Street, features authentic shops with hardwood floors which often hold Saturday sidewalk sales.

The M&H Railroad, often called the Milk & Honey, is an 11-mile roundtrip tour on the towpath of the Union Canal, along the Swatara Creek.

The Union Canal was one of the first canals built in the United States.

The 1910 steam engine pulls passenger cars from the 1920s.

The authenticity of the cars and the historical background relayed by the conductor make for an interesting one-and-a-half hour ride.

For more information about the M&H Railroad, call (717) 944-4435.

Alfred's Victorian Restaurant offers delicious food while one can step back in time and appreciate the decor of the 1890s.

The secluded corner rooms make special occasions very romantic.

Alfred's is listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

For reservations or information, call (717) 944-5373.

Three Mile Island's Visitor's Center offers video programs and literature and has an observation deck directly across from the island. The center is open daily 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., except holidays and is located on Rt. 441, three miles south of Middletown.

For more information, call (717) 367-0518.

Indian Echo Caverns, located in Hummelstown, (just outside of Middletown) is, in itself, a natural wonder.

Learn about the Cavern's historical inhabitants, the Mystery Box of treasures found there in 1919, and test your scientific memory of rock formations.

The caverns remain a cool 52 degrees year round; the tour lasts approximately one hour.

For further information, call (717) 566-8131.

Championship Miniature Golf and Tom's Tee (golf and driving range) are located on Middletown Road in Hummelstown.

For fun or for improving your skills, both are open seven days a week.

Tom's Tee: (717) 566-0100.
 Championship: (717) 566-6322.

There's more in this old town than one may think. Check the yellow pages for pizza shops, diners and taverns.
