

Life Lion

from 1

helicopter, even though it is on call all day, every day.

If a new helicopter is needed, Penn State University will cover the purchase price, estimated to be $4.5 million.

Susan Fletcher R.N., who received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from Penn State in May 1989, is the operations manager for Life Lion. She is justifiably proud of the program personnel and points out that other members of the team are Penn State graduates: Bruce Richter, Pilot, and John Field, M.D.

The Life Lion helicopter is a life-saving tool which doubles as public relations outlet. Painted on both sides

photo by Richard Chlavetta

is more than can be expected of one of the aircraft is the Nittany Lion emblem, while the body is done in the school colors-- blue and white.

The Life Lion helicopter will be on campus on October 30 from 10:00 a.m. till noon to assist with the blood drive.

Speakers coming to PSH

Representatives from the University Office of Affirmative Action will visit Penn State Harrisburg. They will hold a Round Table Discussion Meeting in the Black Cultural Arts Center on Wednesday, October 11.

Aaron Wildavsky, Professor in the Department of Political Science and the Graduate School of Public Policy at the University of California, Berkeley, will present "Groucho's Law" of If anything Americans Can Accomplish Isn't Worth Trying, Why Should We try? This will be at 8 p.m. Thursday, October 12 in the Student Center of the Capital Union Building.

The presentation is part of the College's Economic Development Distinguished Lecture Series.

Dr. Jay Mechling, Professor of American studies at the University of California, Davis, who is writing a book on the development of the animal rights movement, will lead off the American Studies Lecture Series at Penn State Harrisburg, At 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 16, in the Gallery Lounge. The program is free and open to the public.

“I wasn't rubbing it in—I just wanted Eddie to know the score of last night's game.”

Alex Sum · University of Washington · Class of 1990

Go ahead and gloat. You can rub it in all the way to Chicago with AT&T Long Distance Service. Besides, your best friend Eddie was the one who said your team could never win three straight.

So give him a call. It costs a lot less than you think to let him know who's headed for the Playoffs. Reach out and touch someone.®

If you'd like to know more about AT&T products and services, like International Calling and the AT&T Card, call us at 1 800 222-0300.

The right choice.

Rural growth

Projections for the year 2000 indicate that Pennsylvania 33 rural and nonmetropolitan will experience significant population increases and may be reclassified as metropolitan, according to a study done for the Pennsylvania State Data Center at Penn State Harrisburg.

"As the population increases in nonmetro counties, some will be reclassified as metropolitan," said Dr. Gretchen Cornwell, assistant professor of rural sociology.

Metropolitan areas such as Philadelphia and Allegheny counties are expected to lose some of their population to rural areas.

Pennsylvania has the largest number of rural residents in the nation.

Crash

from 1

Affairs, said Kaito was home to "attend a wedding."

A meeting was scheduled on the third floor of Wrisberg Hall, where Kaito lived, to discuss the circumstances of his death.

Dr. Ed Beck, Coordinator of Counseling programs, and Saul Pellicano, a Wrisberg resident assistant, organized the impromptu meeting with the third floor residents.

"I felt that everyone on the floor should know about it," Pellicano said.

Beck said the University has very little information because details are sketchy and are slow coming in.

"What I'm trying to get is some sense of what can we do for (residents of the third floor of Wrisberg)," Beck said.

Jaime Rivera, Kaito's roommate, delivered Kaito's belongings to the family. Rivera will attend the funeral.

"When something like this happens, a family doesn't have time to plan," Beck said.

The funeral was scheduled for 10 a.m. October 4, at Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church.

Donations can be sent to Saul Pellicano, 316 Wrisberg Hall. Pellicano is collecting money for Kaito's family.