Poetry Prizes Doubled Students' Poems Sought:

Poetry prizes worth $44,000 will be awarded to poets by the American Poetry Association in 1990. The association will sponsor four separate contests this year, doubling its efforts to discover new talent.

For the current contest, poets can send up to 6 poems, each no more than 20 lines, name and address on each page, to American Poetry Association, Dept. CO-30, 250-A Potrero St., P.O. Box 1803, Santa Cruz, CA 95061. Poems must be postmarked by March 31 to meet the deadline.

Each poem will also be considered for publication in the American Poetry Anthology, a hardcover collection of contemporary verse.

THEME ANNOUNCED FOR GOVERNOR'S LIBRARY CONFERENCE:

"Pennsylvania: America's Libraries Start Here" is the theme of the 1990 Governor's Conference on Library and Information Services, announced First Lady Ellen Casey.

The conference will be held September 13-15 at the Harrisburg Marriott Hotel. Participants will prepare objectives for presentation at the second White House Conference on Library and Information Services in 1991.

"We encourage attendance by the general public, library users, elected officials, and library professionals, representing all types of libraries, to guarantee that the future growth of libraries reflects the needs and desires of our communities," said Mrs. Casey.

Additional information on the Governor's Forums will be available after Feb. 1 by calling 1-800-237-1990.

the ultimate test of rhyme and verse. Come one and all.

The contest is being sponsored by International Publications of California. Cash prizes are offered and range from $20 to $100 American dollars.

All entries must be original and unpublished work. Submissions must be typed, double spaced, on one-side of the page only. Please give to each poem, your name, address and college attended.

Length can be up to fourteen lines, no more than that. OK?

There is an initial $3 registration fee for the first entry and a one dollar fee for each additional poem.

Submit your work to International Publications P.O. Box 44044-1 Los Angeles, CA 90044.

STUDY ABROAD WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW ORLEANS:

The University of New Orleans is sponsoring its 15th annual INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL in Innsbruck, Austria during the summer of 1990. This will involve over 250 college students as well as some 30 faculty members.

Participants can earn up to ten semester hours of credit. The courses offered focus on the cultural, historical, social, political, and economic issues of U.S./ European relations. All instruction is in English.

The UNO-INNSBRUCK INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL is a wonderful opportunity for students to travel, live, learn, and earn semester credit hours in a rich and beautiful European setting, alive with dramatic current events.

Apply as soon as possible, for enrollment is limited. For more information write to: UNO-INNSBRUCK-1990, International Study Programs, Box 1315, University of New Orleans, New Orleans, LA 70148; or call the UNO Office of International Study Programs at (504) 286-7116.
