

ARTS & LEISURE

A Little Poetry from the Den

The following poems were submitted to the Lion's Den' Valetine's Day Poetry Contest. We have printed the top five winners as judged by the Lions Den'

Food Fool for Love
Valerie Duhig

Poems are written about mother's care

Others may sing to the stars far above
The sex of the opposite always attracts
But me, I'm a food fool for love

I see Brenda's deft touch at the salad bar
And Harv's wizardry at the grill
Peggy's mast'ry of the sandwich supply
I know some adore the triple decker club

I love the macaroni and cheese
With stewy 'mats on top
The iridescent curry soup
I sing your praises and can't stop

I'll always be faithful
And this I can prove
You see me here daily and say
Now THERE's a food fool for love

Love of My Life

By: David Kelly

I awake in the morning, I can't wait to see that love of my life once again
while I sit and take notes I dream of my love,

My first class is over at ten
When from behind the counter my eyes are pleased
She shows me some skin and strips
My impatience grows I can hardly wait

Til my love at last meets my lips
My love is like being in paradise
But you'd never know 'til you've tried
A few strips of bacon, some fresh hot home fries
And a cute slice of orange on the side

I'll give you all the time you need to make up your mind.
I pray that we did plant a seed and our love you will find.

It does not seem that love will be, your love will not be mine.
the future that I hoped to see forever last in time.

The times we spent were so much fun,
I hoped that they would last.
But, suddenly the shining sun is an object that has passed.
The smiles we shared; to touch your staff. So, these poems are the cream of the crop, the best of the best, the "big cheeses" of poetry, By far the greatest thing to happen to poetry since the rhyme.

face,
the good times coming fast,
I know I lost a two man race
and love is in the past.

Your love is gone though,
I really don't know why.
I do know that the world is hollow
and I have touched the sky.

Valentine's Day, that longing time of the year
When a bouquet of roses brings such good cheer.

This year I have a difficult decision to make,
Which pretty lady will be the icing ON MY CAKE?

Darlene, Peggy Sue, Michelle and Tanya,
Four perfect suitors for cupid's love arrow.

And Peg and Harv, who are two more reasons,
To have a Valentine's Date in every season.

So I sit here wondering what to do...
Which sweet girl will get to hear "I Love You"

So, with six fine candidates and such fine quality,
I'll keep my admiration until the next Holiday.

For I can't bring myself to raise my voice,
Because to neglect any of them would be such a bad choice.

Happy Valentines Day,
Gorgeous Ladies in the Den

Love,
Rob Linden

A Valintine Question:
IS MY HARV IN THE RIGHT PLACE??

How seldom Valentines, in words so few,
Are sent your way, right here at PSU:
Remember all the times you had prepared
Vast numbers of those pickles we have shared?

Perhaps, at times, you wondered how I felt
Suggesting daring things like Tuna Melt:

Unless you fondly gaze into my eyes,
However shall you see through my disguise?
Secret Admirers
2 Numerous
2 Mention

Suggested to James McCrory

Capitalite Wants You and Your Pictures

Any graduating senior who did not get senior portraits taken by DAVOR, please submit your picture to Capitalite no later than Feb. 20, 1990 if you want them to be included in the 1989-90 edition.

Anyone interested in submitting pictures for inclusion in the 1989-90 edition please submit them to Capitalite ASAP. We will attempt to return photos if requested.

Anyone interested in joining the staff of Capitalite please leave a message in Capitalite's mailbox in the Student Government office (room 216). Or attend any meeting, which are held on Wednesdays at 4:00 p.m. in W-337.

Essay contest Building for the Future

Essay contest open to Penn State Harrisburg Juniors

Juniors at Penn State Harrisburg have an opportunity to enter an essay contest sponsored by McNroy-Sheffer People Trust of Harrisburg.

Each participant is to write an essay on the topic "Building for the Future-My Perception of the 21st Century and How I am Preparing for it Through Personal Commitment, Community Involvement, Education and Goals."

Essays are to be a maximum of 500 words and must be submitted to Penn State Harrisburg's evaluation team by March 21.

Winners of the essay contest will receive a $1,000 scholarship credited toward the students tuition bill.

Penn State Harrisburg may submit three student essays to the contest.

For further information, contact Joanne M. Smith, Director, Penn State Harrisburg Writing Lab, W242, 948-6355.

TARNHELM '90 CONTEST

BY JUDITH J. FARINA

Tarnhelm co-editors Judy Farina and Karen Mowery are looking for entrants in the Tarnhelm '90 contest.

Cash awards will be presented to winners in each of three categories: poetry, prose, and photography/graphic arts/drawing.

Tarnhelm, the campus arts and literary magazine, accepts poetry, short stories, brief creative essays, black and white photographs, and black and white photography.

The magazine provides an opportunity for undergraduates and graduate students of all majors to express themselves in the print medium of their choice. In addition, having your work published can add a significant note to your resume.

Please share your creative entry for consideration by following these instructions for submission:

-Enclose submissions in a self-addressed envelope.

-Include proper postage for notification of acceptance and/or return of material.

-DO NOT put your name on individual works. All work is to be judged anonymously.

-Enclose a separate sheet stating your name, address, phone number, major and option, and current

-SUBMISSIONS ARE TO BE DROPPED OFF IN THE TARNHELM MAIL SLOT IN ROOM 216.

GUIDELINES: Typed on 8 1/2" X 11" unlined paper

POETRY: One poem per page

FICTION AND NONFICTION: Short stories, creative essays, double spaced

GRAPHICS AND PHOTOGRAPHY: Black & White only!

DEADLINE: February 19, 1990

Staff members are also needed, and students who are interested in joining the staff should sign up in W360, the Humanities Division.

Duties of the Staff include attending several initial meetings, reading, and judging entries, and attending a final meeting to select submissions to publish.