Everyone should enjoy Valentine's Day

*Kathleen Rickabaugh

"Love is a Many Splendored Thing." Yes, Valentine's Day will be here soon. Have you ever wondered the why behind Valentine's Day? I offer one explanation.

There was a priest named St. Valentine who lived in Rome during the 200's under Emperor Claudius II. The Romans jailed the priest for aiding persecuted Christians.

The jailkeeper's blind daughter visited St. Valentine while he was jailed, and people believed he cured the girl of her blindness. And they wrote letters to each other, but not love letters as such just "friendly" letters. St. Valentine was unfortunately beheaded in 270 AD.

Today children exchange valentines with their school friends. Elementary-school children like to make their own valentines from paper doilies, red paper, wallpaper samples and pictures cut from magazines.

Men often send their wives or sweethearts flowers or boxes of candy instead of valentine greeting cards. Now guys, a sweet note that tells your honey that you appreciate all she does for you is just as nice as flowers or candy. Gals, guys like sweet notes, too.

When I think of Valentine's Day, I think back to high school and having "Secret Valentines," wearing red, "sweetheart" dances and just telling friends how special they were to me--oh yea, and chocolate.

Today, I still wear red and cook red foods--spaghetti, jello, cherry juice. Or I bake meatloaf in the shape of a heart--my kids really like that! I also remember one person who I loved dearly, my Grandma. Although she has passed on, I want to share her "Brownie" recipe with you. Here is a sweet for the Sweet.

"Grandma's Brownies"

- 4 Eggs
- 2 Cups Sugar
- 4 Squares Chocolate melted in
- 1 Cup Butter
- 1 Cup Flour
- 1-1/4 Cups Chopped Walnuts
- 1-1/4 Teaspoon Vanilla
- Bake in slow oven-350*-30 minutes
- It doesn't matter if it's flowers, candy, or "Grandma's Brownies", share your love this Valentine' Day.
