riety with her theater piece, For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Suicide/When the Rainbow Is Enuf. For Colored Girls, a group of twenty poems about the power of black women to survive in the face of despair, ran for seven months Off-Broadway. The play then moved to Broadway and was produced throughout the United States. For Colored Girls, was also adapted for television. Shange is one of only two female African-American playwrights whose work has been performed on Broadway.

The lecture/discussion was attended by nearly 100 students and faculty and was the first of two. Thursday evening Shange performed poetry and music in the Capital Union Building.

Humanities Professor, Troy Thomas attended the says, "my impression was that she thought deeply about the issues."

Shange began her discussion with two excerpts. One from Susan Griffith's Pornography and Silence and Belle Hooks' Race, Gender and Politics. Following the readings Shange took questions from the audience regarding the role of women and people of color in society.

"I was impressed with her articulateness and her great ability to penetrate questions she was asked to a deep level," says Thomas.

The event was funded by funds from the Student Activity Fee which students pay upon registering for classes.

campaign - and they didn't take advantage of that," Woodley said.

PSH students also elected Stacy Quinn as board chair. She ran unopposed. Quinn is only the second student to fill this position - and succeeds Arthur Saunders.

The position of board chair was created last spring with the revisions to the student government constitution which were approved by a student body vote.

According to the SGA constitution, the chair's duties include presiding over all meetings of the senate and interpret parliamentary procedure. Although the board chair has most duties of SGA senators, that office forfeits the right to vote during SGA meetings. Before the creation of this office, it was the responsibility of the SGA president to run the meetings.

Students also elected three senators. Voters were restricted to voting for candidates in their respective division. Those that were elected include:

Senior senators at large Samuel Kline and Kristen McGlennen; and senior senator of public affairs Jon Smith.

Four positions on the SGA senate remain open and include: senior senator science, engineering, technology; senior senator behavioral sciences and education; senior senator humanities; and graduate senator at large.

Persons interested in those positions should contact the SGA office at 948-6137.

All officers and senators that were elected were sworn into office March 18 by student council chief justice Adam Cabbage.

Day of Caring

Last September, more than 40 PSH faculty, staff, and students participated in the Capital Region United Way's Day of Caring, "donating" a day of work at a member agency.

The college community will again have the opportunity to show Penn State Harrisburg cares by participating in the 1997 Day of Caring.

Volunteers are already signing up for the fun event which will be conducted on Friday, Sept. 5.

Last year, PSH "workers" were assigned to the Hidden Valley Boy Scout Camp and the Central Pennsylvania Food Bank. Many of those volunteers have enthusiastically returned to the member agencies to further show their commitment.

Volunteers in the program get an opportunity to perform a "hands-on" job for the agencies while gaining insight into the needs of the community.

To volunteer for the Day of Caring, contact Judy Shank at 948-6272.

1997 STATE FINALS

April 23, 1997 - Zembo Temple - 8:00pm

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission is proud to announce that the 1997 Golden Gloves Amateur Boxing Tournament will hold their STATE FINALS in the city of Harrisburg on April 23, 1997 at the Zembo Temple (2801 N. 3rd Street) beginning at 8:00PM.

Last year Pennsylvania's Amateur Boxing program placed three boxers on the 1996 United States Olympic team and this Golden Glove tournament is the first step in producing other Champions. Well over 200 amateur boxers throughout the state have entered this year's tournament which begins with regional action during the last week of March and continues for four consecutive weeks ending with the best from the East versus the best from the West at the State Finals.

Winners of the state finals will represent Pennsylvania at the National Golden Gloves Tournament in Denver, Colorado.

Tickets for this year's state final are: $25.00-VIP Ringside, $15.00-Ringside, $10.00-General Admission. Tickets are available at Woody's Workout Club and Kokomos Sport's Lounge. Call (717)-763-4595 or 1-800-869-1376 for further information.

played at the Mid-town Tavern and Reservoir Park.

When Fast Eddie plays out, they do a selection of original material and covers. Kierce said, "It depends on where we are playing." The band tries to play at least twice a week if possible.

Another possibility is playing at HACC-STOCK Kierce informed me. HACCSTOCK is scheduled to take place on Sunday, May 26th. It will take place on the grounds of Harrisburg Area Community College (HACC). The event gives local bands a chance to play and be heard.

Listing with IMO, Kierce said will improve the group's visibility. Fast Eddie is looking at playing in North and South Carolina later this year. They would like to open a bar in Virginia, perhaps at the shore if things go well or even if it doesn't go well.

All three members of Fast Eddie got into music because they love it and not for the money. Kierce stated, "The money goes back into the group for now." They all dream of making Fast Eddie a career.

Kierce said the group hopes though to turn this into full-time job. If this does not work out, he may be forced to get a "real" job. But like all college students, Kierce hopes to be able to do it all.
