

Section 2

Constitutional Violations

- A) A charge of unconstitutionality must go in writing to the Chief Justice with twenty-five student signatures.
- B) No member of the Student Court may submit a charge of unconstitutionality.
- C) The Court must meet within two school days to decide if the matter presented before them is valid.
- D) If the Court decides that the charge is valid the Chief Justice must then submit in writing to the President the problem and possible resolutions.
- E) The President is expected to enforce the decision of the Student Court within a reasonable amount of time.
- F) In extreme cases, and when there is no attempted resolution to the problem that the Student Court presented, the Executive and/or Senate offices can be shut down for three school days beginning the day the decision is reached by the court.
- G) After the three school days the Executive Board and Senate will resume operations.
- H) By the third school day the court must send their decision in writing to the Vice President as to a course of action and the Vice President is expected to enact the decision.

Section 3
