

STUDENT SPEAKOUT

Interviews and photos by Kim Glass

What is your most memorable Valentine's Day?

Chong So
When I ate heart-shaped chocolate.

Keith Graham
Nothing, since nothing memorable has ever happened.

Brenda Cureton
I went to a b-ball game and the guy I dated knew I liked stuffed animals... waiting in the passenger seat of the car after the game was a huge stuffed dog.

Harold English, Jr.
... February, 1991... I was in the Army in the Saudi Arabian desert. By chance a guy's wife owned a flower shop in Georgia and through him I sent a large shipment of flowers to my fiancée.

Vanessa St. Clair
... my senior year in high school... my boyfriend brought me roses and chocolates to the store where I worked and had some guy send them up to me on the conveyer belt.

Michele Myers
Last year, because everyone forgot Valentines Day, including my boyfriend. My birthday is two days afterwards and everybody forgot my birthday too, including my parents.
