business, disinterest and ineptitude of equipement. We think we invented something new when we find we're able to run something with creative liscence and no one looking over our shoulder. We think it's going to shut down when we walk away.

the paper get fired up, and then fall away with Good bye to all who graduate; you pass the torch to people you'll never meet, but may stumble across yellowed, old issues and see your ghost. They'll think they invented the radio station format, and that the new format of the paper is the best that's ever been.

Somehow it all keeps changing, but it seems to stay the same.

Have a good summer. See of us will see some of you in the Fall.
