Weddings

Roderick Lee, Student Government Association President, wed Heather Linton on July 31.

The ceremony took place at St. Paul's Missionary Baptist Church in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee went to Mt. Airy Lodge in the Poconos on their honeymoon.

The couple currently lives in Harrisburg.

Crispin Sartwell, Associate Professor of Humanities and Communications, wed Marion Winik on June 19.

The wedding, "Woodstock 3: The Love-In", took place at the couple's Glen Rock home.

For more details, see page 5.

Works Published

Dr. Peter Idowu, Associate Professor of Engineering, was published in the following journals over the summer.

The first article, titled "An Intelligent Data-Acquisition and Control (IDAC) System for Energy Conversion Laboratory," was published in IEEE Transactions on Power Systems, Vol. 14, No.2, May 1999, pages 391-396.

The second article, "Robust Neutral Net-Based Inverse-Model Identification of an Induction Motor," was published in Electric Machines and Power Systems, Vol. 27, No. 5, May 1999, pages 513-525.

Appointments

Pete Tartline was recently appointed to the position of Deputy Secretary of Administration for The Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Tartline previously served as Deputy Director of Governor Tom Ridge's policy office.

He holds a B.A. from Gettysburg College, a M. Ed. from George Mason University, and currently attends Penn State Harrisburg where he is working toward his Doctorate in Public Administration.

Tartline lives in Mechanicsburg with his wife and two children. He and his wife just celebrated the birth of their daughter, Anna Rose, on August 15.

Shand Stringham was recently hired by The Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) as the Special Assistant to the Deputy Secretary of Administration.

Stringham graduated from Penn State Harrisburg in the fall of 1998 with his master's degree in Public Administration. He also holds a bachelor's degree in International Relations and Political Science from the University of Utah and holds his first master's degree in History from Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM).

Before starting in his new position at PennDOT, Stringham served in the U.S. Army for 26 years before retiring as a Colonel at the Carlisle Army War College.
