Album Title: Reinventing the Steel
Label: Electra
Release Date: March 2000
Genre: Thrash/Metal
Overall Rating: ***

This is Pantera's 6th album, and to tell you the truth its no different than albums number one, two, three, four and five. It's fast, it's heavy and it's quite obvious that after ten years of albums they still don't give a sh*t.

They still flaunt the half empty Jack Daniels and beer bottles in their art work and encourage middle fingers and sucker punches. For some fans I guess consistency is good but as for me, I wouldn't mind seeing a little progression. How can you be that bitter??? You've got 6 albums out!!!!

Each song sounds like the previous so if you like one song I guess you'll like them all. I give this a borrow or steal rating and come to think of it I did steal this album, then I gave it to some dude.

For Fans Of: All the previous Pantera albums; I can't tell one from the other.

Album Title: Stomping Ground
Label: Mojo Records
Release Date: March 28, 2000
Genre: Pop/Punk
Rating: *****

Goldfinger's third release, Stomping Ground, is a prized collection of fast punk songs with catchy hooks.

In the style of their first album, their second being a little disappointing, this album is strong from start to finish with a total of 14 songs including a cover of the classic '80s hit "99 Red Balloons."

Goldfinger continue their tradition of incorporating metal, ska, odd changes and other oddities to keep each song interesting and unique.

Album Title: Opposite of H2O
Label: Ruff Ryder
Release Date: February 15, 2000
Genre: Rap
Rating: *****

This one is a close to classic compact disc, that is why I recommend you buy it. Once again Drag-On's lyrics are unbelievable and Swizz Beatz has outdone himself with the beats he created for this album. An extra added feature are the guest appearances by DMX, Eve and Jadakiss. This is a must buy as well as a keeper.

Artist/Group: No Doubt
Album Title: Return of Saturn
Label: Interscope
Release Date: April 11, 2000
Genre: Pop/Rock
Overall Rating: **

The only reason I didn't give the album a horrible rating is because I really like two songs on it. One, "New," was released a year ago! Couldn't they write some new material?

The other good song is the current single "Ex-girlfriend." "Six Feet Under" is a track that could grow on you and definitely be a radio hit, but that's about it for this album.

Too bad they only had the magic once! Overall, I expected more from No Doubt and was not satisfied at all with what I thought they could do.
