

Intramural Sports Report

By Jillian Wiese
Capital Times Staff Writer

Intramural basketball has begun. The teams have been formed and team captains chosen.

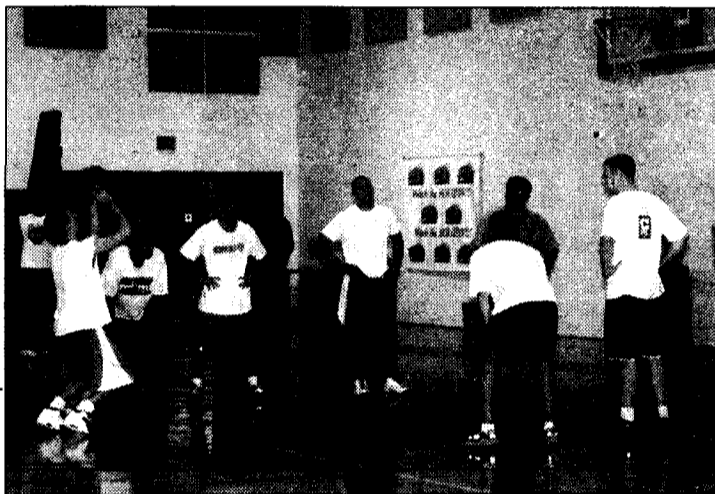

Every Tuesday and Wednesday at 9 and 10 p.m., the intramural basketball teams take the court in the CUB.

Last week four games were played. Tuesday night, the Blue Cox won their game against Club 831A by a score of 66-20. In the second game that night, the Oopsters bloodied the Blood team, scoring an impressive 53-point lead. The Oopsters won the game, 84-31.

Wednesday evening, the Load Engineering Shooters bested the Celts, 58-23. In the 10 p.m. game, Club 831A played a tough game against the Oopsters but lost by a score of 80-28.

Intramural volleyball games are played at the CUB every Monday and Thursday night at 9 and 10 p.m. Head over to the CUB and cheer your friends on!
