Janitor's Anthem

by Louie Hallman

Mop mop mop all day long
 I'm a little ol' janitor just singin' my song
 If there's a spill you know they shout out to me
 As long as nobody throws up they just let me be Cause I'm a little ol' janitor
 I'm just gonna have to face it
 If someone breaks a chair they ask me to replace it
 I wait til the kids are all out of the school
 Then I start moppin' like a moppin' fool Yes yes i be representin 4 all the janitors from around the way
 And let's not forget all the butlers and the maids
 If there's a mess you know I be on top of things Helpin' you find all those misplace items
 Like wallets, jackets, and the diamond rings
 I'm there to sanitize everything that you touch Unclogging the toilets is never too much Cause I'm just a little ol' janitor just moppin' the floors sooner or lata you'll be screamin' for more Takin' my time to mop to perfection
 I'm the best darn janitor I betta mention Cause it's plain and simple
 I ain't moppin' just for fun
 When you see me I think you betta run
 If some kid throws up
 I ask, " Ahh, little fella, Are you ok?"
 Take my mop up and I clean it right away
 So the next time you see a janitor moppin'
 the floor
 Give 'em a high five and tell 'em you appreciate it Give 'em a cookie and tell 'em you made it Yeah yeah yeah...
 The next time you see a janitor moppin the floor
 Just stand there and shout: encore encore!!!
