

Letter to the Editors,
Food for thought

Right now, I am sitting in the computer room at school trying to concentrate. This is harder than it looks thanks to a person who is sitting at a computer talking on a headset as he looks at Internet sites. The person in charge of the room has asked him to quit talking and he tells the person at the other end of the phone and laughs.

This person speaks in a foreign language and is probably getting his education for significantly less money than I am. His gratitude is nonexistent. Having been the wife of a military career person, I know that people in the military are always reminded that, "when in Rome, do as the Romans do."

A common manner in this country is to be quiet in places of study, i.e. libraries, computer rooms. It is a shame when foreigners who are able to receive monetary privileges have the gall to act as if they are given a special set of rules as well!

I am not writing this to all foreign students, but at this moment voicing my reaction to one in particular.

Connie Goodell

Hello!

My name is Parul Luthra and I am the new president for the SGA 2002-2003 school year. I would like to take this opportunity to address each and every one you. Many will ask what makes me qualified to take the role of president, well the biggest thing my enthusiasm about the upcoming year and what the student body and I can accomplish to better Penn State Harrisburg. I am a Criminal Justice major, with hopes of entering law school. I believe I offer Penn State a different perspective, and ideas for a new era. Penn State brings to mind a great institution with a myriad of faces, ideas. Together we can achieve the heights of success...together we can equip each and everyone of us with not only book knowledge, but knowledge of the society we will enter. I implore you as students to let your voices be heard, and let me act as liaison between the students and the professors, staff and administration. I wish everyone luck in the last few weeks of the semester and look forward to an exciting 2002-2003 school year.

Sincerely

Parul Luthra
SGA President

The Capital Times
SPRING MADNESS SALE
April 15 - 19
IN the LOBBY
OF the OLMsted BUILDING
From 10 a.m.
...to 6 p.m.
each day during miles of spring...
gEt CoOL stUFF
Proceeds will benefit the
Four Diamonds Fund
SCHOOL SHIRTS HATS T-SHIRTS

CONTENTS

FEATURES—

Elections and Awards by Sarah Elkalban	4
PSH Farewell Ball by Stacy De Angelo	5
Reporter's property site of Sept. 11 crash by Amanda Moyer	6
Foreign Correspondent visits Copenhagen (part 3 of a 3-part series) by Marko Primorac	7
RAD course delivers powerful lessons by Cathie McCormick	8
Expert outlines the hazards of "club drugs" by Brooke Pottelger	9
THON raises over 3 Million by Melissa A. Kupchak	12

DEPARTMENTS—

Around Campus
Student Speak Out by Amy Shur	4
PSH Police Report by Jennifer Zilegler	10
Campus Calendar by Rebecca Swab-Hudson	11

Entertainment

We shot our wad on April first so no entertainment for you!

Please tell our advertisers that you saw it in the Capital Times!

Cover design- Mitchell Davidson Bentley