

Well I must say that while the articles in the Cap Times are very interesting and well written, the quality of the paper is less than expected. I've noticed several common editorial and proofreading errors, that could've been caught if a team of editors proofed the copy prior to print. For example, right off in the caption on page 3 "One of te many new offices..."

Second, and most important, are the elements of layout and design which need improvement. As an editor myself, I feel confident in giving you a bit of advice "Just because you have a million of different fonts to use, doesn't mean you have to use all of them." Also be consistant with such things as headlines and bylines. The front page has too much going on and the photo of the needle in the arm is in poor taste for a cover photo. My suggestion, read up on the rules of layout and design. Right now the paper is so cluttered and busy and disorganized, that I am ashamed to say it is a product of our campus.

Please do justice to those well-written articles and the reporters who write them by improving the paper. And remember, you asked for our opinions, and that's all I'm doing.

Annual Alumni Weekend to Feature Meade Heights Time Capsule, SGA Reunion

By Stacy De Angelo
Editor in Chief

Penn State Harrisburg's annual Alumni Weekend will begin on Friday, October 25 at 6:00 p.m. and continues Saturday, October 26 starting at 10:00 a.m. The weekend will kick off Friday night with an Alumni Awards Reception in the Capital Union Building. There the reward recipients will recount their experiences at Penn State Harrisburg. In addition to the alumni speakers, the prestigious Alumni Fellow award will be presented to Hasu Shah, a 1975 graduate. Shah is currently the Chairman of the Board of Hersha Enterprises, Inc., a large hospitality company.

On Saturday the festivities begin early with registration and campus tours provided by the Lion Ambassadors. At 10:30 a.m. there will be a Student Government Association Reunion. Plans are in the works to dig out some old SGA memorabilia including photos and past issues of The Capital Times.

Believe it or not you originally came to PSU Harrisburg for the education and now you can take advantage of the educational programs that will be offered from 11:00 to 12:30 p.m. There will be several to choose from including, Digital Cameras, Terrorism in America, The Gubernatorial Election, and Kid's College from 11:00 to 11:40, and The Amish, Business Communication Strategies, and Kid's College from 11:45 to 12:20. These programs will be followed by lunch which will in turn be followed by a State-of-the-Campus Address by Provost and Dean, Madlyn Hanes, Ph.D.

Also on the itinerary for Saturday are: a video presentation, a history of PSH, the Meade Heights Time Capsule, engraved bricks from Meade Heights, and the Farewell to Meade Heights from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Following those activities will be the TV tailgate party. The time of the game has yet to be announced at this time. Lion Ambassadors will be in the lobby of Olmsted on Wednesday, October 23, from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Thursday, October 24 from 11:00 to 2:00 promoting the tailgate. Also on Saturday in the Morrison Gallery at 3:30 p.m. there will be an XGI reunion program, which will feature memorabilia from past XGI's and will include present members of the organization.

For more information and to register, there are pamphlets available in the lobby of Olmsted, the student activities office on the second floor, and the Alumni office on the first floor of Olmsted. You may also register and get additional information on line at www.hbg.psu.edu/alumni. If you are interested in an engraved memorial brick from Meade Heights, go to the website previously mentioned or call 717-948-6715. Alumni weekend is not just for past students but for present and future students as well. Come join the PSU family and mingle with the Alumni who were in your shoes in the years before.
