

Lion Ambassadors Represent PSH in America's Walk for Diabetes

By Sarah Elkalban
Capital Times Departments Editor

Left: Lion ambassadors had a great turn-out for this year's annual America's Walk for Diabetes at City Island

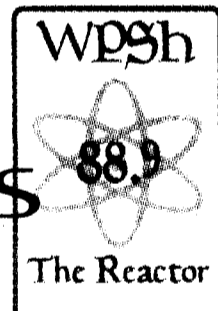

On your mark... get set... go! Sharilyn Klinger is ready to kick off her walk for diabetes

Right: CAT Country 106.7 provided walkers with 90's dance hits to get the walk started

SEE DEEZ MUSIC REVIEWS

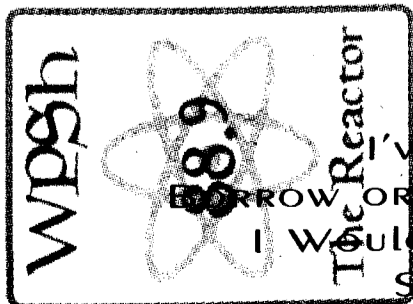

REVIEWED By: GOOSEMAN
ARTIST/GROUP: BURNING BRIDES
ALBUM TITLE: FALL OF THE PLASTIC EMPIRE
LABEL: V2
RELEASE DATE: OCTOBER 2002
GENRE: Rock
OVERALL RATING: ****

Where did rock n' roll music go? I ask myself this question as I'm currently lost in a sea of narcissistic rap garbage polluting the current airwaves (I'm being told that if I don't "get out the way," I'm going to find myself in some sort of physical pain. Right.).

Anyway, the answer to my question is the band Burning Brides, which is easily the best group of straight-up rockers to emerge in recent years. If you still enjoy loud guitars and lyrics that actually amount to something, "Fall of the Plastic Empire" is a record you may want to check out. That is unless you enjoy being threatened while listening to music.

FOR FANS OF: THE HIVES, LED ZEPPELIN, Rock N' Roll music

THE KEY:
HORRIBLE *

I've Heard Worse *
BORROW OR STEAL IT, DON'T BUY IT ***
I Would Probably Buy It ****
STUPENDOUS ****

