ARTS

SACHS HALL GALLERY

Take time to enjoy the startlingly beautiful photography of Rick Snizik, principal and design director of Stratus Communication Design, LLC. Snizik summarizes his work thus: "While it's true that the structures and spaces in which we live, work, and play provide us with the shelter and protection that we need at the most basic level, they also serve as silent, if not always permanent, testaments to the creativity and enduring nature of the human spirit." Center hall, first floor, Olmsted Building, through the end of December.
