Volleyball Wednesdays

From 8 to 11 p.m. each week in the CUB gym. The Harrisburg campus Volleyball Club will have three courts open. You can form your own team or show up on your own to join the fun (if coming solo, the club suggests you arrive around 8 p.m. for easier team accommodations). The club is also interested in playing a faculty team in a tournament at the end of the semester. Students are asked to encourage faculty to form a team.

Fitness and Exercise Classes

Free fitness and exercise classes led by Andres Gutierrez will begin on the Harrisburg campus. The classes are held every Tuesday and Thursday, 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. in the Multi-purpose Room of the Capital Union Building. The classes are free to Penn State students, staff, faculty, and current Penn State Alumni Association members. Registration is not required. For further information, call the Recreation/Athletics Office at 948-6266 or 948-6267.

Recreation Tournament

Once again PSH will compete in the Association of College Unions International Region 4 Recreation Tournament that will be hosted by the University of Maryland Eastern Shore on February 7 and 8. Plans call for local tournaments to be held in bowling, billiards and table tennis, and the winners of these tournaments will represent PSH in February. Please call Bud Smitley at x6267 for further information.

Martin Luther King Day Events on Campus

Monday, Jan. 20, 9 a.m., Gallery Lounge, Martin Luther King Breakfast Celebration
 La-Verna Fountain, a 1983 Penn State Harrisburg graduate with a degree in Public Policy, will be keynote speaker for the breakfast who which the entire campus community is invited.

Monday, Jan. 20, noon to 1 p.m. Performance of an original play, "Day Day's Quilt."
 Written and directed by Assistant Professor of Social Science Dorothy King, "Day Day's Quilt" depicts several generations of an African American family as they move out of slavery to a prominent position in their community. The focal point of the play is Day Day, a slave woman who pays a great price to hold her family together.

Monday, Jan. 20, 5 to 6 p.m. Cultural Speakers Series features the Rev. Marcia Dyson
 The Rev. Marcia Dyson, well-known author and a contributing writer for Essence Magazine, is a native of Chicago, an ordained minister, engaged social and cultural critic, and inspiring writer. Her lecture will focus on an examination of ministerial misconduct, sexual exploitation, and gender oppression in the Black church, where she exposes the theological, sexual, gendered, and racial contradictions in the heart of Black Americans religious institutions while clearing a path of rescue and reconciliation that men and women of all faiths and races might take as they seek psychic healing and spiritual restoration.

Monday, Jan. 20, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Annual Community Talent Expo
 The Rev. Dr. King's life and dreams will be celebrated in song, dance, and recitals performed by choirs and choruses from the Greater Harrisburg community. Last year, more than a dozen groups participated. The Penn State Voices of Schuylkill gospel choir will join in the festivities.

Guest Speakers

Principal Spokesman for the American Indian Movement to Speak

Vernon Bellecourt, leader of the 1972 occupation of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Redskin Superbowl demonstrations in 1992, will speak at Penn State Harrisburg on Tuesday, Jan 28, from 5 to 6 pm in the Morrison Gallery of the new Library. Bellecourt, an internationally renowned activist, is a member of the Chippewa Tribe of the Lakota Nation and President of the National Coalition on Racism in Sports & Media and received the City of Phoenix Martin Luther King Human Rights Award. A reception will follow Bellecourt's talk. Sponsored by a Student Activity Fee grant and supported by the Community Psychology and Social Change Program. Questions, please email Jason at jww106@psu.edu

Food for Thought

The International Film Festival ad hoc Committee is pleased to announce the theme for its spring 2003 series: "Food," and asks you let us know your favorite film or films, or parts of films, international or U.S. produced, that feature good food, bad food, or great food in some part, or the whole, of the film. Your ideas are very welcome, and those whose suggestions become part of the series will be recognized when that film is shown. Ideas for an eye-catching series title are also requested. There may even be a matinee, featuring an appropriate selection, for children of the community, and your suggestions for a matinee film are also welcome. Any questions, contact Eton Churchill, efc2@psu.edu. Send your suggestions for a film, a part of a film, a matinee selection, or a title, to Valerie Duhig at vxd3@psu.edu. Include as much information as you can, please.
