ARTS

Faculty Exhibit

An exhibit combining the work of its art and communications faculty in a college or university is a tradition on many campuses, and the current show at the Morrison Gallery of the new library honors that tradition by bringing together the art of four of its faculty: Nancy Mendes of Etters, Instructor of Humanities; Linda Mylin Ross of Lancaster, Assistant Professor of Education and Humanities; Victor Viser of York, Assistant Professor of Humanities and Communication; and Samuel P. Winch of Harrisburg, Communications Program Coordinator and Associate Professor of Humanities and Communication. The show will run through March 21.
