Faculty Exhibit

An exhibit combining the work of its art and communications faculty in a college or university is a tradition on many campuses, and the current show at the Morrison Gallery of the new library honors that tradition by bringing together the art of four of its faculty: Nancy Mendes of Etters, Instructor of Humanities; Linda Mylin Ross of Lancaster, Assistant Professor of Education and Humanities; Victor Viser of York, Assistant Professor of Humanities and Communication; and Samuel P. Winch of Harrisburg, Communications Program Coordinator and Associate Professor of Humanities and Communication. The show will run through March 21.

Penn State Harrisburg International/Intercultural Film Festival

Everybody knows food. In acknowledgement, this year's International Film Feast -- "Film du Jour" will star food -- as sustenance, as cultural identification, and as signifier of human interrelationships.

Pairing an entree - the main feature -- and a "takeout," a selected short piece chosen from another film to complement the main feature, two big weeks of free movies will begin on: Tuesday, March 25, when the feature "Big Night" will show along with the dinner scene from "Avalon."

Wednesday, March 26, "Babette's Feast" is paired with the infamous eating scene from "Tom Jones" Thursday, March 27, shows "Gold Rush" as takeout with "The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie" in full Friday, March 28 will have the lobster scene from "Annie Hall" paired with "Mostly Martha." Tuesday, April 1, will have the restaurant scene from "When Harry Met Sally" accompanying the feature "The Cook. The Thief, His Wife, and Her Lover." Wednesday, April 2, will show a scene from "Animal House" and the feature "Eat Drink Man Woman"

The series ends on Friday, April 4, with the diner scene from "Five Easy Pieces" and the feature "Delicatessen" All showings will be in the Kunkel Auditorium of the Olmsted Building; Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays; showings start at 8:30 p.m. and Fridays, Mar 28 and April 4, will start at 7 p.m. All showings are free admission. Any questions, call 717 948 6086 or email vxd3@psu.edu. This program is endorsed by the Capital College Faculty Senate's Committee on International and Intercultural Affairs, and supported by a Student Activity Fee grant and by the Office of the Associate Provost.
