

Village Wins Award for Best Landscaping

Landscaping Engineer Doug Ittup, was amazed by the majestic, crystal clear ponds.

With this past winter being the coldest it has been in years, the arrival of spring was much anticipated, but not without some skepticism. Many wondered if spring would arrive this year on its due date of March 21st. Well, arrive it did, with temperature nearing 70 degrees. Along with the long awaited arrival of spring this past month, there was an even bigger cause for celebration. "The Village" received the nationally recognized University Campus Landscaping Award for the 2002-2003 year. One feature in particular won PSH, this much sought after award.

Landscaping Engineer Doug Ittup, who sits on the awards committee, proclaimed, "when my committee saw the picturesque pond that sits by buildings 1000 and 2000, we knew we had our winner. We have never seen anything like it on a college campus." Students were extremely thrilled to hear about the award. Beth Bathesnever commented, "The pond truly is beautiful. It is clean enough to take a dip in. It's like having your very own pool in your own backyard." Well, with the springtime thaw finally upon us, I guess more students like Bathesnever will be taking advantage of our wonderful outdoor Jacuzzi.

The breathtakingly beautiful pond between the 1000 and 2000 buildings, pictured above, was the charm that won The Village the top honor. Below: Another small pond located behind the 5000 building is an aesthetically pleasing addition.

Yo! Dis CDz be all iced-out and shizznit! Any bizznitchez be listening to it get put back in their place quick-like. Misogynz if ya please! And "Tha Blingerz" be gettin' all consumption on diz release cause we all know you ain't no man if you can't bling wif a hoopty, ice, platinum grille, and a phat roll w/ nothin' but Benjamins. So watch out for Big Bling and the Blingy Bling to drop so can keep the perpetual wheel of ignorance, disrespect, hatred, stupidity, and consumerism going. And just keep ignorin' any rappa's wif something important to say like Mos Def, The Roots, and others. Peace!
