Things You Should Know About

Alcohol Edu

Alcohol Edu has come to PSH. This self-paced assessment is confidential and can be done on any personal computer. You may choose to discuss the results with a counselor, but you do not have to do so. Each module has a brief quiz, interactive exercises, and case studies. College students all across the U.S. have found Alcohol Edu helpful in understanding their attitudes and behaviors with regard to alcohol use. If you would like to explore what Alcohol Edu has to offer, contact one of the counselors in the Student Assistance Center, W117, Olmsted. Or you may telephone at (717) 948 6025.

Earth Day Recycling Yard Sale

Please bring in yard sale items to be resold to faculty, staff and students at the Recycling Yard Sale that will take place during the campus celebration of Earth Day, April 15, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Oliver LaGrone Cultural Arts Center. Please place all donations in the boxes provided throughout the Olmsted Lobby area. Items that have been collected in past years range from puzzles and purses to vacuums. Please do not put clothing in the boxes! (The Salvation Army will have a clothing pick-up truck on campus during Earth Day, April 15). The proceeds of this yard sale will go to an environmental organization. For information, contact Jennifer Wertz at jaw335@psu.edu <<mailto:jaw335@psu.edu>>

Domestic Violence Program

Bernadette Muscat will be speaking on issues related to domestic violence on Wednesday, April 16, in the Gallery Lounge from 8:30 to 9:45 am. Ms. Muscat has a substantial background of practical experience and as a researcher in this area. She currently teaches at York College, is a doctoral candidate at Penn State Harrisburg, and has accepted a faculty position in a victimology program at Cal State Fresno starting fall semester 2003.

Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day will be Thursday, April 24.

Program presentations will be: Ceramics; CSI (Crime Scene Investigation) for Kids; Theatre (Words in Motion); Touring the Engineering Labs; What's in Your Computer? (Open It and Wee!); What's Under Your Feet? (Geology); and much more. Program brochures are available. If you are a student or employee interested in bringing a child (ages 8-13) for this special day (you do not need to attend all programs with the child), please contact Ella Dowell ead8@psu.edu or Tara Swartz tcs7@psu.edu.

James Eugene Crawford Jr. Memorial Ceremony

A Douglas fir will be planted, weather permitting, on Tuesday, April 22, National Earth Day, in memory of James Eugene Crawford Jr, late husband of Constance Crawford, a Humanities undergraduate student. Refreshments will be served in the Gallery Lounge after the dedication, which is scheduled for 12:17 p.m.

Location of the tree planting will be announced.
