Cash or checks (made payable to Penn State University) are welcome. Thank you to all of you who have contributed so far.

National Education Criteria For Performance Excellence Seminar

On Tuesday, April 29 from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., the School of Science, Engineering and Technology will sponsor a seminar by Dean R. Hooper and Donald Parrish, who will provide a brief overview of the national criteria, core values, approach, deployment, and results assessment in the ABET accreditation process, and make a direct link to their effective use. More specifically this recent focus has increased the emphasis on: outcomes based performance metrics; outside-in focus to better serve students and stakeholders; continuous improvement in the educational delivery system; flexibility in approach to and deployment of limited resources; and anticipation of market segment needs and emerging challenges. These challenges are applicable to accreditation processes in all disciplines. TL 118, lunch will be provided.
