CAMPUS CALENDAR

LECTURES & WORKSHOPS

April 4: The Multicultural Academic Lecture Series concludes with a presentation by Dr. Michael E. Dyson, named as one of the "50 most inspiring African Americans" by Essence magazine and as a "major American thinker and cultural critic" by the Philadelphia Inquirer. Free and open to the public. (Capital Union Building, 6 p.m.)

April 6: Dr. Sue Rankin, the University's Senior Diversity Planning Analyst, will lead a discussion on "Sexual Minorities on Campus." The entire campus community is invited to attend. For further information, contact Donna Howard at 948-6025. (Special Events Room, 2 p.m. & 6:15 p.m.)

April 7: Learn more about Penn State Harrisburg's 20 master's degree and two doctoral programs at the graduate program open house. RSVP appreciated, but not required. For information, phone 717-948-6250 or e-mail hbgadmit@psu.edu (Library, 6:30 p.m.)

April 9: Learn about undergraduate study opportunities at Penn State Harrisburg at the undergraduate programs open house. The campus offers 27 baccalaureate programs and the first two years of study leading to 160 Penn State undergraduate majors available throughout the Commonwealth. RSVP appreciated, but not required. For information, phone 717-948-6250 or e-mail hbgadmit@psu.edu. (Capital Union Building, 9 a.m.)

CLUBS

April 7: SGA meeting. Join the Student Government Association every Thursday. "Where Student Voices are Heard." (Olmsted E-314, 12:30 p.m.)

April 12: Interested students are invited to attend the meeting of the College Democrats. (Olmsted E-200, 3:30 p.m.)

ARTS

April 6: Back by popular demand, Regency is a cappella group that will keep your hands clapping and toes tapping. Their repertoire includes the sounds of today, mixed with the Motown magic of yesterday, including the hit sounds of Otis Redding, Marvin Gaye, The Righteous Brothers, and The Temptations. They even sing some country hits in their own unique way. This event is funded by the Student Activity Fee. (Gallery Lounge, noon)

April 6: A free yoga class, sponsored by the Student Activity Fee, will be offered. (Oliver LaGrone Cultural Center, 12:15 p.m.)

April 6: A tsunami relief concert, featuring U2 and Beatles music performed by local artists, is free and open to the public. Donations collected at the concert will go to the U.S. fund for UNICEF-Tsunami Relief. The event is sponsored by a coalition of student organizations at Penn State Harrisburg. For information, contact Dr. Clem Gilpin at 948-6066. (Olmsted Auditorium, 8:30 p.m.)

April 7: The final installment in the river series on campus will feature a live concert of river music. Performing artists will be announced at a later date. (Olmsted Auditorium, 7 p.m.)

April 17: The Harrisburg Student Awards will be held. (Capital

Union Building, 1:30 p.m.)

FUN & GAMES

April 6: Christian and Catalina return to campus after running our Blizzard of Bucks game show to present "Mind Tripping." Their mentalist abilities will give you goose bumps and keep you entertained. Audience participation is also a given with this duo. This event is sponsored by the Entertainment Council. (Community Center, 9 p.m.)

April 12: Stuff-a-Plush, one of the most popular PSH events, returns to campus just in time for the end of the year. Make a cute bear, monkey or other animal for that special someone or keep it for yourself. Sponsored by the Student Government Association. (Gallery Lounge, noon)

April 14: Put together a team for the charity Dodge Ball Tournament, sponsored by Circle K. Contact Steve O'Holla for more information at sao142@psu.edu. (Capital Union Building, 9 p.m.)

April 19: Blow off some pre-finals steam at the Spring Luau. This afternoon will include many events such as Tarot Reading, Airbrush Tattoos, Bouncy Boxing, Limbo, Caribbean Photos, and numerous carnival games with prizes. While participating in the activities enjoy the sounds of Steel Impressions, a steel drum band, and enjoy the traditional Luau food and drinks from the Tiki bar. Don't forget to take along your free t-shirt! This event is funded by the Student Activity Fee and Entertainment Council. (Vartan Plaza, noon)
