Who's Who Nominations
 The Student Affairs Committee of the Faculty Senate is accepting nominations through November 17 for the 2005-06 edition of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Penn State Harrisburg is among the more than 1,400 institutions of higher learning across the country nominating outstanding campus leaders and students. Selection for Who's Who is based on the following criteria: senior or graduate student status; scholarship (at least a 3.0 GPA for a senior or 3.5 for graduate student); participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities; citizenship and service to the University; and potential for future achievement. Students may be recommended by faculty or staff, may be self-nominated, or may nominate another student for the honor. There is no nomination form. Simply provide a one- or two-page nomination letter supporting the criteria listed above and send it to Student Services, C-120 Olmsted.

Fun and Games:
Bus Trip to New York
 Circle K is sponsoring a free bus trip to New York City on Saturday, Nov. 19, for its second annual Day of Service.
