Last Issue's Answers

Hosted, Igloo, Banker, Shallow, Belated.

When the boxer had his midterms he had to "HIT THE BOOKS"

Note from the Entertainment Editor
Correction: Last issue's Jumbled Worlds contained a typo. The fourth word, shallow, had the wrong letters circled. Instead of the letter L being circled, O should have been circled.

Things You Need To Know

The Penn State Harrisburg Student Government Association (SGA) is currently preparing for Spring Elections and there are many important positions available. The elected positions of President and Vice President are being vacated by transferring students and there are many Senator positions with no current candidates. Additionally, the SGA Student Court will have four positions opening up due to graduating seniors - including the position of Chief Justice.

Please consider running for a position in the April 3-5 election. This opportunity will allow you to gain valuable experience in your major, build leadership strength, network with student organizations campus-wide, and strengthen your undergraduate or graduate resume. For more information on the upcoming election or about opportunities to get involved, please contact Mike Edwards, or drop by the Student Activities Office at E-131 Olmsted to pick up a Candidate Election Packet.

SGA Food Drive
The Student Government Association invites all Penn State Harrisburg students, faculty, and staff to participate in a food drive for the Middletown Food Bank.

Drop off points are the Student Activities Office, E-131 Olmsted and the Behavioral Sciences Office, W-157 Olmsted. Donations will be accepted until Tuesday, April 25.

The college is offering a free S.A.F.E. (Self-Defense Awareness and Familiarization Exchange) Program on Tuesday, March 28 from noon to 2 p.m. in the Capital Village Community Center. The program is an initiative to stop violence against teenaged and adult women. The class is for females only. Please respond to Jen at ju1@psu.edu or phone 948-6232.

Lunchtime Pilates Class - A Pilates class is being offered every Tuesday and Thursday in April (beginning April 4) from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the CUB. This class is open to all faculty, staff, and students and is free of charge. However, pre-registration is required and there is a limit of 15 participants. Please call Julie Stoehr at 948-6267 to register.
