Aquarius

There are two differing personality traits associated with the intellectual Aquarius. Liveliness holds base to an exuberant strong-will that is only compared to their shy attribute, which embraces their gentle patience. Honest Aquarius is a truth seeker that will openly listen to both sides of an argument.

Although strong in their beliefs, they can be persuaded to an opposing opinion if given the right argument. An Aquarian will follow the Quaker exhortation to "be honest to truth, from whatever source it comes." This philosophical side of an Aquarius has derived from a nature inspired devotion to benefit mankind.

The typical Aquarian will be driven to the point of exhaustion over an issue they feel a strong connection to. It is an active spirituality that is partially responsible for feeding the genial concern and need for independence.

Therefore, the notion of "following the crowd" is, frankly, unacceptable behavior for an Aquarian--as is any interference from others. Aquarians tend to be serious minded and have refined tastes in music, drama and the fine arts.

When it comes to fashion, Aquarians break all the rules. They don't care if a particular garment was out last season, last decade or last century because if Aquarius wears it, then it's cool! The dusty fringe jacket that was sitting in the back of the closet since the 60's, throw away as soon as possible!

That jacket could get the attention of an Aquarian that will have no problems strutting around town in it. Preventing this fashion "don't" will avoid embarrassing situations for the other Signs that are affiliated with fellow Aquarius.

It's respectable that Aquarius wants to distinguish a strong sense of self through their clothing and thrive on being different. However, homemade creations are horrifying and PLEASE don't do it!

There are many ways to amplify personality and still stay fashion forward. To all Aquarians, please note: there is a difference between being shabby chick and just plain SHABBY.

Pisces

Gentle and good-natured Pisces are popular with many types of people because of their easygoing attitude. Empathetic towards suffering, a true Pisces reaches out to friends. In fact, they are more inclined to be concerned with another person's pain, and will patiently wait for their own problems to resolve themselves. Pisceans live in an emotional world that bans rationality. From this dreamworld evolves ideals of fame and financial rewards that are a reflection on their artistic talents.

Extremely perceptive, Pisces have remarkable intuition and are quick to be receptive to new ideas. Pisceans believe that their best work comes from outside themselves, "whispered beyond to the misted curtains, screening this world from that." Pisces like to have a peaceful place to dream away in.

They crave mystery and find anything ridiculous to be highly amusing. However, their emotions can run away with them, as they are sensitive to being criticized and being called know-it-alls.

Romantic Piscean woman will drape themselves in beautiful chiffons and silks. They adore glamour and will get looks of awe in their shimmering ensembles.

Extremely feminine Pisces are preferable, as they will wear skirts and dresses over a pantsuit. Piscean men are all about the comfort and will choose that over a stiff suit any day! Their color is a greenish blue that one will find many hues of in their clothing.

Pisces' favorite body part is their feet, so beware of the sea of SHOES that pours out of a Piscean closet! People interested in dating one of these fanatical dreamers should also beware of the fact that they adore jewelry.

Sometimes less is more, but to a Pisces, dressing themselves up with gold, silver or other precious gemstones--more is more!

Aries

The most adventurous and energetic of all the zodiac signs is an Arian. Their pioneering tactics is the base of the "take charge" attitude that every natural born Aries possesses. Concerned with their selves, self-advancement is prominent.

An Aries motto, "if at first you don't succeed...O wait, you will!" That's right; Aries happen to be extremely vain people and strive towards ultimate success.

Their dynamic enthusiasm and confidence brings them an extraordinary amount of attention. People will flock to an Aries and a crowd of followers will form, as they always have to be the center of attention.

Many people are impressed by an Arians' impulsive behavior and usually fall into their quick-witted schemes. An Arian may be courageous and rebellious, however, it's passion that would qualify as their most unique quality.

An Aries will wear their emotions on their sleeve and, in this way, are surprisingly sensitive. "Love them or Hate them," one will never be bored with an Aries.

Aries happen to LOVE the color red. It happens to be bold and demanding as it screams, "Look at me and pay attention." An Aries woman may carry a red handbag or be wearing some fabulous red heels.

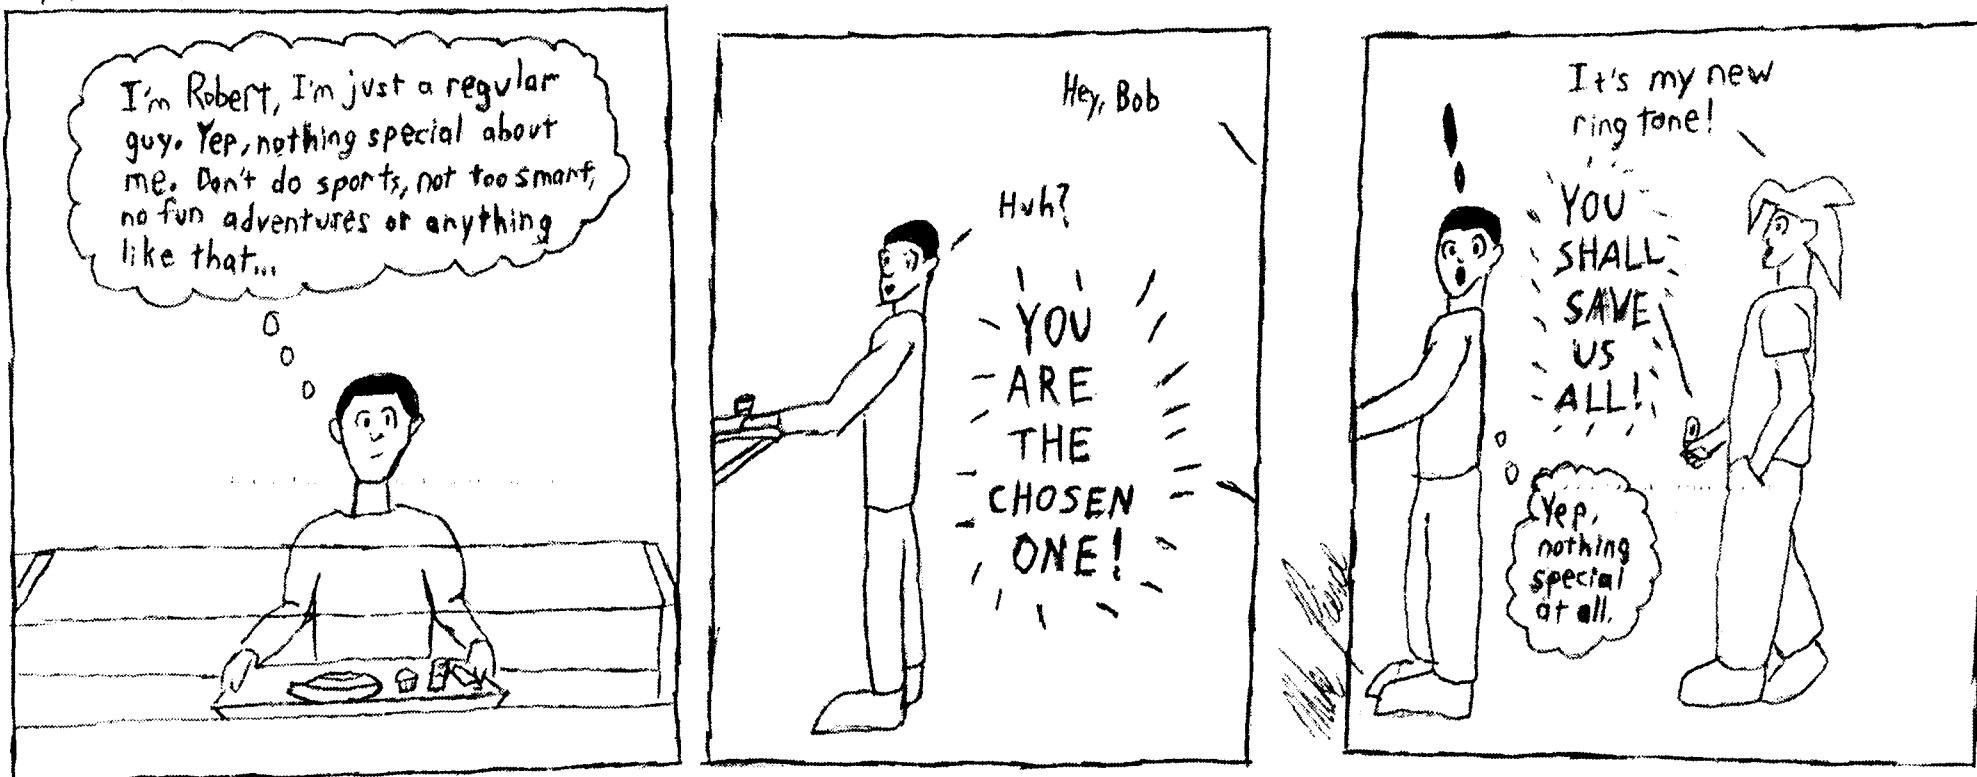

The Aries man will be the one wearing the bright red tie that turns heads from across the room. Aries are up to date on the latest fashion trends, but will always take it that one step further to stand out.

An Arian will be the one to take a fashion risk and pull it off. They are also known for their business savvy attire, because they love to be classy and powerful. Their favorite body part is their head, so one might find an Aries wearing stylish hats, scarves and barrettes.

If an Arian man starts balding, he has no fear. Aries are so confident that he would rather shave his entire head and strut, than doing that embarrassing comb over the other signs may do. A true Aries eats, sleeps and breathes fashion!
