Virgo-

Perfectionists- Think about the high school English teacher. She is an older lady, more commonly known as a spinster. She is constantly correcting grammar, as she is known to be the anal perfectionist. Her students soon become aware that the word "good" will almost always be corrected with "well", as the word "can" will be replaced with "may".

The phrase, "think before you speak," has a new twist for Virgo. Each symbol is so well thought out it makes an impatient Aries frustrated. Who knew that sentences could be drawn out so rhythmically? Virgo is naturally born with a brown nose and owns the phrase, "Gee golly that's swell!" Leave it to Beaver (or Virgo) to be the goody-two-shoes of the group.

Some fashion tips:

Virgo obviously is going to stay neat and polished. (Think Charlotte from Sex and the City.) The collared shirt will be nicely tucked into their knee length skirt.

A Virgo wouldn't be caught dead without wearing her stockings and a pair of practical shoes that would serve mostly for comfort. Her hair would always be combed and pulled away from her face, as everything down to her fingernails was nicely groomed.

Cold- Virgo tends to be quiet and reserved. They don't want to draw a lot of attention to themselves, and think creating drama is extremely tacky. So, with all this in mind they tend to stay in the background away from the Hollywood spotlight. A lot of people may mistake poor Virgo for being distant and unattainable.

This is a false accusation that ironically distances Virgo even further from the group. It takes the personalities of an Aries, Leo and Gemini to pull the spunk out of a reserved Virgo.

Some fashion tips:

Virgo stays far away from any flashy clothing! Never would they imagine drawing attention to themselves in such a tasteless fashion. You can be sure to see Virgo in more practical earth tones that fit with the particular season.

Practical- Dreams of luxury are far from Virgo's mind. Although their intelligence can allot them riches, they don't go crazy over the fantasy. Virgo lives in the real world and sees life as it is. They may go a long with a crazy scheme once in a while but they won't be the ones to initiate it.

When by themselves, Virgo is quite content with life and lives it one day at a time. Now, this is not to say that when Virgo is under the influence of other signs they won't break away from their normal stature.

No, Virgo has definitely been known to bring out the "other" personality once in a while. The scary thing is, when the "other" is out, Virgo gets freaky!

Some fashion tips:

Virgo is known to be the first to jump at a bargain. It's almost as if they smell it coming a mile away! As their clothing is used for function rather than fashion, it doesn't really matter where they buy it.

Libra-

Romantic- Open a box of chocolates and break out the wine. A Libra knows how to wine and dine with taste. But unlike those mean old crabs, a Libra is actually genuine with their feelings.

It's hard to believe anyone can actually hold so much passion for another person these days. But Libra's feelings are true. When Libra says they care, it's not something that should be taken lightly. Enjoy the attention, because this sort of affection does not happen often. When Libra pulls you into their world, nothing else will seem to matter.

Some fashion tips:

Libra's will usually be wearing lacy shirts and skirts to show a very feminine side. They're very beautifully dressed and adorned by many admirers. They even smell good! How else could they be so charming? Their passion seeps out through their clothing and is visually appealing, as is everything else about a Libra.

Gullible- Libra carries an innocence that yearns for the good in everyone. What a shame when the fattest man decides to stomp poor Libra over! There is nothing but these shameful footsteps that mark the body of a flattened Libra. It's not in a Libra's nature to be cruel, so the poor soul will get back up again and hand the fat man an ice-cream cone.

Some fashion tips:

Libra dresses so well all the time it's not uncommon for people to be jealous. But no worries, it's hard not to love a Libra! There will always be somewhere to go that Libra can make her graceful presence. Libra is so content with life that she will make everyone feel special. Everybody loves to group around Libra for some special attention!

Diplomatic- Libra is the friend that everyone will depend on for advice. They are so helpful to all because they can see both sides of a situation and try to solve problems rationally.

They will stop fights with words of wisdom and peace, in prayers that all will get along with out resentment. Libra is the soothsayer in this aspect, or the wise man on top of the mountain. Keeping a Libra in your company may be a good idea. It would certainly solve any deep-rooted anger!

Some fashion Tips:

Shiny jewelry would distract anyone's attention from a nasty catfight! Libra makes sure to dazzle herself right up! However, Libra does not own anything tacky or fake. All her stuff is the real deal! This happy go lucky character would cheer up even the most dismal of signs! (Like that mean old Crab!)
