To all Penn State Harrisburg undergraduate students:

Travel awards are available for those interested in taking the study tours/courses to either Brazil or Spain. Four $950 awards for each trip are available. The trip costs for Brazil are $2325 and for Spain are $2400. By winning a travel award, your award would be sent directly to the travel agent to reduce your cost of the trip.

Students can compete with the decisions being made using 3 criteria:

- Demonstrated financial need
- GPA
- 1/2 page essay describing why you want to go.

If you are interested, please complete the essay and forward to Marie-Louise Abram, Director of International Programs, mla9@psu.edu, phone 717-948-6003 before Oct. 28. The demonstrated financial need and GPA will be accessed without you having to do anything. Decisions will be announced after Oct. 31, which gives you time to meet the Dec. 1 trip registration deadline.

Film Screening and Director Talk with Daniel Karlake

This event will be Monday, October 20, 2008 at 6:30 p.m. in Kunkle Auditorium. Through the experiences of five very normal, very Christian, very American families — including those of former House Majority Leader Richard Gephardt and Episcopal Bishop Gene Robinson — we discover how insightful people of faith handle the realization of having a gay child. Informed by such respected voices as Bishop Desmond Tutu, Harvard's Peter Gomes, Orthodox Rabbi Steve Greenberg and Reverend Jimmy Creech, For the Bible Tells Me So offers healing, clarity and understanding to anyone caught in the crosshairs of scripture and sexual identity. Open to the community.
