Man on the street

This month's issue of Playboy Magazine features a revealing pictorial of the cartoon housewife, Marge Simpson.

The Capital Times sent out Photographer Chyna Geib on the street to see what Penn State Harrisburg students and faculty thought of this semi-nood scandal..

"It's comedic more than anything else. If you get turned on you should see a therapist," said John Haas

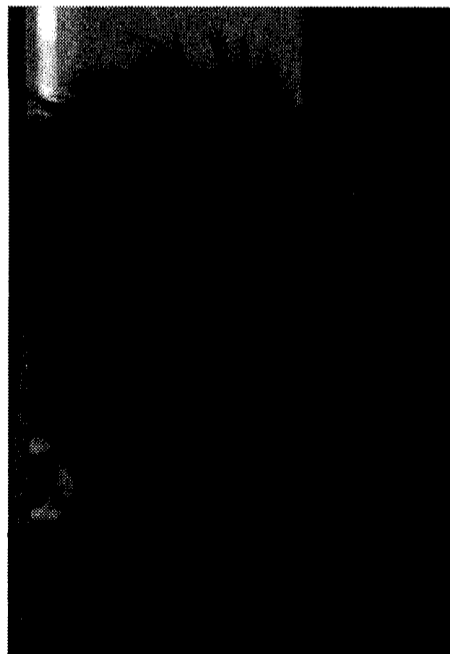

"I think it's stupid," said Dan Cornell

"If they put cartoons in Playboy now it's going to be more and more seen by kids," said Amanda Reddy

"It's just funny. It's a cartoon," said Linda Rosato

"It's like someone putting breasts on a cat," said Catherine McCormick

"It's our first step to an Asian run culture," said Brandon Davis
