Entries accepted from March 1, 2010 to March 20, 2010

Rules:

Entrants must either be currently enrolled students, faculty, staff, or alumni of Penn State Harrisburg. There is no entry fee.

Each entrant is limited to four photographs submitted, total. Photographs must have been taken within the last five years. Photographs should either have been taken in a foreign country, or should show some aspect of either an American subculture or intercultural interaction.

Entries must be digitally submitted following the instructions below. If you need to digitize analog images, please ask for help from the Humanities Photo Lab assistants in W336.

Submission instructions:

Image resolution should be about 300 dpi at 10 inches on the longer dimension. They must be saved as medium-high quality JPEG files, about 1 megabyte saved file size. Name the files with the photographer's last name, first initial, and image number, like so: JONEST001.jpg, JONEST002.jpg, etc.

A written entry letter document file must be sent along with the image files. The letter should contain the following information:

Full name of entrant, mailing address, telephone number(s), e-mail address. Explain your affiliation to Penn State Harrisburg (student, faculty, staff, or alumni).

List the names of the photograph files submitted, along with a brief caption describing each image, where it was taken, and the approximate date it was taken. Specify in which category (A. People, B. Scenic, C. Urban Life, D. Wildlife and Nature) the picture should be judged.

Entries must include a statement affirming that you are the photographer who made the images, and that you own (and have not transferred) the copyright to the images, so that you have the right to publish and display the images. If your pictures are chosen as winners, you agree to sign a statement giving the International and Intercultural Affairs Committee of Penn State Harrisburg permission to publicly display your photographs.

Entries must be emailed as attachments to: spw10@psu.edu ONLY between 8 a.m. March 1, 2010 and 12 midnight, March 20, 2010.
