National Black Feminist Organization (NBFO)

Formed in the 1970s, the National Black Feminist Organization (NBFO) served as a political, spiritual, and community building structure for African American women who felt marginalized by society and shut out of the Civil Rights Movement. It provided an environment in which black women could marshal forces with other organizations to push for the rights denied them. Join us on Thursday, March 25 for a panel discussion with members of the NBFO from 2 to 3:15 p.m. in the Gallery Lounge and 6:15 to 8 p.m. in the Morrison Gallery. The evening program will also include poetry readings and spoken word tributes to black women by students from 8 to 9 p.m.

Lunch and Learn

Friday, March 26 in W-207 Olmsted from noon to 1 p.m.
