

Campus Life

Wild Party: An Invitation to Drama

By JAMES SPEED
BUSINESS MANAGER
JKS5161@PSU.EDU

Love, Lust, Drugs, and Guns - A debasing drama of degenerate debauchery. Wild Party, the upcoming musical production of Penn State Harrisburg's Capital Players, is one wild night indeed. The story, by Andrew Lipka, is set around the sexy and voluptuous Queenie, a seductive vaudeville dancer who can have her way with any man, and does.

Then she meets Burrs, a masterful clown with a dark side and an insatiable appetite who works on the vaudeville scene. Vaudeville was a type of variety show popular around the 1900's. It was love at first sight and each had finally found someone capable of slaking their sexual appetites; but when the lust wears off nothing is left except Burrs' awful temper. Bruised, battered and despairing, Queenie devises a plan to reignite their lust, a Wild Party!

A cast of colorful characters are invited including; the flamboyant D'Armano brothers - Queenie's best friend and fiercest competitor, Kate - a lesbian - a prize fighter - a hooker and a tongueless tap dancer. Everything is going wonderfully until a new man, Mr. Black, joins the party and immediately has his eye on Queenie.

Soon the party members find themselves spectators to a twisted love affair that can't end any other way than bad. With a gorgeous cast and crew stripped to their core this production is sure to captivate audiences and titillate viewers. Make sure you're invited to the Wild Party April 8th thru the 11th and 16th thru the 18th.

Support your student cast!

CAST:

QUEENIE- Rachel Farneth
BURRS- Phil Narsh
BLACK- Antoine Tate
KATE- Jordyn McCrady
OSCAR- Kevin Conti
PHIL- Dusty Hoepfer
EDDIE- Dustin McQuaid
MAE- Sara Powers
MADELAINA TRUE- Danielle Harrow
MAX- Josh Kirwin
NADINE- Miranda Cover
JACKIE- Cody Page
DOLORES- Laura Atkins
SAM- Ernest Kwame Ntiamoah

ENSEMBLE:

Clarissa Brevard
Theresa Garvin
Gissell Reyes
James Speed
Alex Ciccione

WHAT THE FOTO

Mid-Feb vs Early April

Photos by Jenna DeNoyelles The Capital Times